Spring Play

"To See the Stars"

March 5, 6, & 7 at 7:00pm

To See the Stars is a historical drama set in 1909 New York City, following young garment workers who unite to stand up for fair treatment and safer working conditions. As they discover the power of courage, friendship, and collective action, these girls learn that even in difficult circumstances, it is possible to hope for something better and reach for change.

Please be advised this play is a historical drama. All ages are welcome, but the show is best enjoyed by audiences ages 10 & up.
