NOTIFICATION OF PRIVACY RIGHTS UNDER
THE PROTECTION OF PUPIL RIGHTS AMENDMENT AND ALASKA LAW

The Protection of Pupil Rights Amendment (PPRA) and Alaska Statute 14.03.110 afford parents and students who are 18 or emancipated minors ("eligible students") certain rights regarding the school district's conduct of surveys. The PPRA also conveys rights relating to the collection and use of information for marketing purposes, and certain physical exams. These include

- The right to consent before students are required to participate in a survey that inquires into "personal or private family affairs" or one or more of the following protected areas:
  1. Political affiliations or beliefs of the student or the student's parents;
  2. Mental or psychological problems of the student or the student's family;
  3. Sex behavior and attitudes;
  4. Illegal, anti-social, self-incriminating, or demeaning behavior;
  5. Critical appraisals of others with whom respondents have close family relationships;
  6. Legally recognized privileged relationships, such as with lawyers, doctors or ministers;
  7. Religious practices, affiliations, or beliefs of the student or parents; or
  8. Income, other than as required by law to determine program eligibility,

- The right to receive notice and an opportunity to opt a student out of the following activities:
  1. Any non-emergency, invasive physical exam or screening required as a condition of attendance, administered by the school or its agent, and not necessary to protect the immediate health and safety of a student, except for hearing, vision or scoliosis screening permitted or required under Alaska law; and
  2. Activities involving collection, disclosure, or use of personal information obtained from students for marketing or to sell or otherwise distribute the information for marketing purposes.

- The right to inspect upon request and before administration or use:
  1. Protected information surveys of students; and
  2. Instruments used to collect personal information from students for marketing purposes.

- The right to inspect instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum, upon request.

THE PROTECTION OF PUPIL RIGHTS AMENDMENT AND ALASKA LAW

The District has adopted a policy or policies, in consultation with parents regarding these rights. The district will directly notify parents and eligible students of its policies at the start of each school year and after any substantive changes. Copies of the district's current policies and regulations may be obtained from your school administrator or the district's central office. The district will also annually notify parents and eligible students of the specific or approximate dates of the following activities:

- Collection, disclosure or use of personal information for marketing or sales purposes.
- Administration of any protected information survey described above.
- Any non-emergency, invasive physical examination or screening as described above.

Parents/eligible students who believe their rights have been violated may file a complaint with:
