

STONYHURST HOLY WEEK RETREAT CODE OF CONDUCT

To ensure that the Stonyhurst Holy Week Retreat is a safe place for all our retreatants, we have set a code of conduct which we expect all our retreatants to observe and adhere to during their stay.

- Act always in accordance with the core values of the Catholic faith;
- Provide an example you wish others to follow;
- Work in a way that is honest, reliable and transparent, never seeking to deceive or manipulate;
- Refrain from using blasphemous, violent, discriminatory, or offensive language and behaviour;
- Refrain from smoking, vaping, consuming too much alcohol or using drugs;
- Do not engage in any form of sexual flirtation or innuendo

Any breaches of the Code of Conduct will be addressed by the retreat leader and Commercial Director. More serious or persistent breaches may result in formal action being taken to address the concerns.

All concerns or allegations in relation to the abuse of a child or adult at risk will be dealt with using the safeguarding policy and procedures in relation to the management of allegations and concerns.

If you have a concern regarding another retreatant's behaviour or the potential safety of another retreatant, whether that be a child, young adult or vulnerable adult, please report this directly to the retreat leader, the Experience Office or to a member of the security team who will contact the Designated Safeguarding Lead.

You can also report a concern online quickly and confidentially via the Holy Week Retreat webpage or using the QR code on the posters around campus.
