

For Families

- Greater insight into student progress and coursework
- Flexible schedules to support family needs
- Ongoing communication with teachers and staff
- Personalized academic and support services
- Reduced transportation and daily stress

Interested in Cyber School?

Families of students in grades 7–12 should contact their guidance counselor for more information.

Families of students in grades 1–6 should reach out directly to Michael Loughren to discuss options and next steps.

Michael C. Loughren

Coordinator of Educational Programs & Services michael.loughren@carlynton.k12.pa.us
(412) 429-2500 ext. 1109

Stefanie Barnes

10–12th grade counselor
stefanie.barnes@carlynton.k12.pa.us
(412) 429-2500 ext. 1122

Helen Shearer

7–9th grade counselor
helen.shearer@carlynton.k12.pa.us
(412) 429-2500 ext. 1114

Carlynton Cyber Academy

Is Cyber School Right for Your Student?

- Expands access to education for diverse learners
- Keeps students engaged and connected to school
- Prepares students for college and modern careers
- Efficient use of district resources
- Strengthens school–family partnerships

For Students

- Flexible learning schedule and environment
- Individualized pacing and instruction
- Access to a wide range of courses and electives
- Safe, supportive alternative to traditional schooling
- Builds independence, time management, and digital skills

For the Community

- Expands access to education for diverse learners
- Keeps students engaged and connected to school
- Prepares students for college and modern careers
- Efficient use of district resources
- Strengthens school–family partnerships

Support Beyond the Classroom

- Certified teachers and academic support
- Special education and related services
- Counseling and progress monitoring

