BYLAWS
OF
AMG & ASSOCIATES, INC.

ARTICLE 1

DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT

Section 1. Powers and Standard of Care.

(a) Subject to the General Corporation Law of California (to which the parenthetical section numbers relate) and any limitation in these bylaws on actions requiring approval by the shareholders (§153) or the outstanding shares (§152), all corporate business and affairs shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under direction of the board of directors.

(b) Each director shall perform all duties in good faith, in a manner he believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, with such care as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances (§309).

Section 2. Number and Qualification.

The authorized number of directors shall be three as long as there are three or more shareholders, and may be changed only by amendment to these bylaws adopted by approval of the outstanding shares (§212).

Section 3. Election and Tenure of Office.

The directors shall be elected by ballot at the annual shareholders' meeting to serve for one year from election date or until their successors are elected and have qualified.

Section 4. Vacancies.

Vacancies on the board may be filled by the shareholders or a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, to hold office until their successors are elected at an annual or special shareholders' meeting.

A vacancy shall exist on death, resignation, or removal of a director, or on authorized increase in number of directors.

A successor to fill a resignation accepted to take effect at a future time may be elected to take office on the effective resignation date.

No reduction of the number of directors shall effect removal of any director before expiration of his term.

Section 5. Removal of Directors.

The entire board or any individual director may be removed from office as provided by sections 302, 303 and 304 of the Corporations Code, and successor directors elected for the unexpired terms.

Section 6. Notice, Place, and Manner of Meetings.

Meetings of the board may be called by the president, any vice-president, the secretary, or any director, and shall be held at the principal corporate executive office unless the notice designates some other place which must be within the same county. Members of the board may participate in a meeting through conference telephone, electronic video screen communication, or similar communications equipment as long as all members participating can hear one another (§307).

Section 7. Organization Meetings.

An organization meeting of the board shall be held immediately following adjournment of each annual shareholders' meeting.

Section 8. Other Regular Meetings.

Regular meetings of the board shall be held at the corporate offices, unless another place is designated by notice, on the first Monday of March of each fiscal year at 10 a.m. or, if a holiday, on the next succeeding business day. No notice need be given of regular meetings.

Section 9. Special Meetings - Notices - Waivers.

Special meetings may be called at any time by the president or, if he is absent or unable or refuses to act, by any vice-president, the secretary, or any two directors, upon 48 hours' notice if delivered personally, by telephone, or facsimile, or upon 4 days' notice by mail to each director at the address shown on the corporate records (or if it is not shown, then at the last known address).

Notice need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice or a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes before or after the meeting, or attends a meeting without protesting, before or at its commencement, the lack of notice. All waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records and made a part of the meeting minutes.

Section 10. Directors Acting by Unanimous Written Consent.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board consent in writing, individually or collectively, to such actions. Such consents shall be filed with the minutes of the board proceedings and shall have the same force as a unanimous vote.

Section 11. Quorum.

A majority of the authorized directors constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business, and the action of a majority of the directors present at any meeting duly held at which there is a quorum is valid as a corporate act. A minority of the directors, absent a quorum, may adjourn from time to time but may not transact any business. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 12. Notice of Adjournment.

Notice of the time and place of a meeting adjourned not over 24 hours need not be given to absent directors; if adjourned more than 24 hours, notice shall be given before the adjourned meeting to all directors not present at the time of adjournment.

Section 13. Compensation of Directors.

Directors, as such, shall not receive any stated salary for their services but by resolution of the board a fixed sum and expenses may be allowed for attendance at each board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the company in any other capacity for compensation.

Section 14. Committees.

Committees of the board may be appointed by majority resolution of the whole board. Committees shall comprise two or more members of the board and shall have such powers as may be expressly delegated by board resolution, except those powers expressly made non-delegable (§311).

Section 15. Advisory Directors.

The board may elect advisory directors, not members of the board, to perform special assignments, attend board meetings on invitation, and furnish consultation. Title shall be held at the pleasure of the board.

Section 16. Resignations.

Any director may resign effective upon written notice or a specified later time.

ARTICLE II

Section 4. Removal and Resignation.

Any officer may be removed, without cause, by a majority of the board or, except officers chosen by the board, by any officer having delegated power to remove.

Any officer may resign at any time effective on written notice or at any later time specified and, unless otherwise specified, acceptance shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. Vacancies.

Vacancies in any office for any cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in the bylaws for regular appointments.

Section 6. President.

The president shall be the chief executive officer and, subject to the control of the board, have general supervision, direction, and control of the corporate business and offices. He shall preside at all meetings of shareholders and of the board. He shall be ex officio a member of all standing committees, and have such other powers and duties as prescribed by the board.

The secretary shall have kept a book of minutes of all meetings of directors and shareholders, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present, the number of shares present or represented at shareholders' meetings, and the proceedings.

The secretary shall have kept a share register or duplicate showing names and addresses of shareholders, number and classes of shares held by each, number and date of certificates issued, and number and date of cancellation of every certificate surrendered for cancellation.

The secretary shall give any required notice of all meetings of the shareholders and the board, shall keep the seal in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and duties as prescribed by the board.

Section 9. Chief Financial Officer.

This officer shall maintain, under generally accepted accounting principles, adequate accounts of the corporate properties and business transactions, including its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, losses, capital, earnings (or surplus), and shares. The books of account shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any director.

This officer shall deposit all moneys and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the board. He shall disburse the funds of the corporation as ordered by the board, shall render to the president and directors whenever they request it an account of all of his transactions and of the financial condition of the corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board.

ARTICLE III

SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Section 1. Place of Meeting.

Shareholders' meetings shall be held at the principal corporate office unless another appropriate and convenient location is designated.

Section 2. Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held the first Monday of March of each fiscal year at 10 a.m. or, if a legal holiday, on the next succeeding business day. At the annual meeting, shareholders shall elect a board, consider reports of corporate affairs, and transact such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings.

Special meetings may be called at any time by the board, the president, a vice-president, the secretary, or one or more shareholders holding not less than one-tenth of the voting power of the corporation.

Upon receipt of a written request delivered personally or mailed to the president, vice-president, or secretary by any person entitled to call a special meeting of shareholders, such officer shall cause notice to be given to the shareholders entitled to vote that a meeting will be held at a time requested by the person or persons calling the meeting not less than 25 nor more than 60 days after receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within 20 days after receipt of such request, the persons calling the meeting may give notice as provided by these bylaws or apply to the superior court (§305(c)).

Section 4. Notice of Meetings - Reports.

Notice of meeting, annual or special, shall be given in writing not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting, to shareholders entitled to vote by the secretary or assistant secretary, or if no such officer or in the case of neglect or refusal, by any director or shareholder.

Such notices or any reports shall be given personally or by mail or other means of written communication (§601) and shall be sent to the shareholder's address appearing on the books of the corporation or supplied by him to the corporation for the purpose of notice. If a shareholder supplies no address, notice shall be deemed to have been given to him if mailed to the place where the principal executive office of the company in California situated or published at least once in some newspaper of general circulation in the county of said principal office.

Notice of any shareholders' meeting shall specify place, day, and hour of meeting and (1) for a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted and no other business may be transacted, or (2) for an annual meeting, those matters which the board at date of mailing intends to present for action by the shareholders. At any meeting where directors are to be elected, notice shall include the names of any nominees intended at date of notice to be presented by management for election.

Notice shall be deemed given at the time it is delivered personally or deposited in the mail or sent by other means of written communication. The officer giving such notice or report shall prepare and file an affidavit or declaration thereof.

When a meeting is adjourned for 45 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. It shall not be necessary to give any other notice of adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting except by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken.

Section 5. Validation of Shareholders' Meetings.

The transactions of any shareholders' meetings, however called and noticed, shall be valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the shareholders entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of such meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Attendance shall constitute a waiver of notice, unless objection shall be made. (§601(e)).

Section 6. Quorum.

A majority of the shareholders entitled to vote constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. If such majority is not present or represented at any meeting, the shareholders entitled to vote have a power to adjourn the meeting from time to time until the requisite amount of voting shares is present at such adjourned meeting and business may be transacted. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of shareholders, if any action taken is approved by a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 7. Shareholders Acting Without a Meeting - Directors.

Any action to elect a director which may be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting or notice of meeting if authorized by a writing signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose and filed with the secretary; provided that if the directors fail to fill a vacancy, a director to fill that vacancy may be elected by the written consent of persons holding a majority of shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

Section 8. Other Actions Without a Meeting.

Any other action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Section 9. Shareholder Consents.

Unless the consent of all shareholders entitled to vote has been solicited in writing,

(a) Notice of any shareholder approval pursuant to sections 310, 317, 1201, or 2007 of actions taken without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given at least 10 days before the consummation of the action authorized by such approval, and

(b) Prompt notice shall be given of the taking of any other corporate action approved by shareholders without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent, to each of those shareholders entitled to vote who have not consented in writing.

(c) Any shareholder giving a written consent, or the shareholder's proxyholders, or a transferee of the shares of a personal representative of the shareholder, or the respective proxyholders, may revoke the consent by a writing received by the corporation prior to the time that written consents of the number of shares required to authorize the proposed action have been filed with the secretary of the corporation, but may not do so thereafter. Such revocation is effective upon its receipt by the secretary of the corporation.

Section 10. Voting Rights; Cumulative Voting.

Only stockholders of record on the day of any meeting of shareholders, unless some other day be fixed by the board for the determination of shareholders of record, and then on such other day, shall be entitled to vote at such meeting.

If the candidate's name has been placed in nomination before the voting and one or more shareholders have given notice at the meeting before the voting of intent to cumulate votes, every shareholder entitled to vote at any election for directors of any corporation for profit may cumulate votes and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which the shares are entitled, or distribute as he thinks fit.

The candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected are elected.

The board of directors may fix a time in the future not exceeding 30 days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or the date fixed for the payment of any dividend or distribution, or for the allotment of rights, or when any change or conversion or exchange of shares shall go into effect, as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting, or entitled to receive any such dividend or distribution, or any change, conversion, or exchange of shares. In such cases only shareholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting or to receive such dividends, distribution, or allotment of rights, or to exercise such rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any share on the books of the company after any record date fixed as aforesaid. The board of directors may close the books of the company against transfers of shares during the whole or any part of such period.

Section 11. Proxies.

Every shareholder entitled to vote or to execute consents may do so either in person or by written proxy executed in accordance with the provisions of sections 604 and 705 of the Code and filed with the secretary of the corporation.

Section 12. Organization.

The president or in his absence any vice-president shall call the meeting of the shareholders to order and act as chairman of the meeting. In the absence of the president and all vice-presidents, the shareholders shall appoint a chairman for such meeting. The secretary of the company shall act as secretary of all meetings of the shareholders, but in the absence of the secretary, at any meeting of the shareholders, the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Section 13. Inspectors of Election.

In advance of any meeting of shareholders the board may appoint inspectors of election to act at such meeting or any adjournments. If inspectors of election be not so appointed the chairman of any such meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder or his proxy shall, make such appointment at the meeting in which the case number of the inspectors shall be either one or three, as determined by a majority of the shareholders represented at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV

Upon surrender to the secretary or transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate for shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, it shall be the duty of the corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 3 Lost or Destroyed Certificates.

Any person claiming a certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed shall make an affidavit or affirmation of that fact and shall, if the directors so require, give the corporation a bond of indemnity, in form and with one or more sureties satisfactory to the board, in at least double the value of the stock represented by said certificate, whereupon a new certificate may be issued in the same tenor and for the same number of shares as the one alleged to be lost or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfer Agents and Registrars.

The board of directors may appoint one or more transfer agents or transfer clerks, and one or more registrars, who shall be appointed at such times and places as the requirements of the corporation may necessitate and the board of directors may designate.

Section 5. Closing Stock Transfer Books - Record Date.

In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of any meeting or to vote or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or entitled to exercise any rights in respect to any other lawful action, the board may fix, in advance, a record date which shall not be more than 60 and not less than 10 days prior to the date of such meeting nor more than 60 days prior to any other action.

If no record date is fixed:

The record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

The record date for determining shareholders entitled to give consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the board is necessary, shall be the day on which the first written consent is given.

The record date for determining shareholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the board adopts the resolution, or the sixtieth day before the date of such other action, whichever is later.

Section 6. Legend Condition.

If any shares are issued under a permit or exemption requiring imposition of a legend condition, the person issuing or transferring the shares shall make sure the legend appears on the certificate and on the stub in the stock record book and shall not be required to transfer any shares free of such legend unless an amendment to the permit or a new permit is obtained.

DESIGNATION OF SUBCONTRACTORS

Note: This document must be executed and submitted with the bid.

Each bidder shall set forth below the name and the location of the place of business of each subcontractor and the California contractor license number of each subcontractor who will perform work or labor or render service to the Contractor in or about the construction of the Work or improvement, or to a subcontractor licensed by the State of California who, under subcontract to the Contractor, specially fabricates and installs a portion of the Work or improvement according to detailed drawings contained in the plans and specifications, in an amount in excess of one-half of 1 percent (0.5%) of the bidder's total bid, and the portion of the Work which will be done by each subcontractor. An inadvertent error in listing a California contractor's license number shall not be grounds for filing a bid protest or for considering the bid nonresponsive if the bidder submits the corrected contractor's license number to the Owner within 24 hours after the bid opening, or any continuation thereof, so long as the corrected contractor's license number corresponds to the submitted name and location for that subcontractor.

If the Contractor fails to specify a subcontractor for any portion of the Work to be performed under the Contract in excess of one-half of 1 percent (0.5%) of the Contractor's total bid, the Contractor shall be deemed to have agreed to perform such portion itself, and shall not be permitted to subcontract that portion of the Work except under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Subletting or subcontracting of any portion of the Work as to which no subcontractor was designated in the original bid shall only be permitted in cases of public emergency or necessity, and then only after a finding reduced to writing as a public record of the legislative body of the Owner.

As of March 1, 2015, for any bid proposal submitted, and as of April 1, 2015, for any contract for public work entered into, an inadvertent error in listing a subcontractor who is not registered under Labor Code section 1725.5 shall not be grounds for filing a bid protest or grounds for considering the bid nonresponsive, provided that either: the subcontractor is registered prior to the bid opening; or the subcontractor is registered and has paid the penalty registration fee specified in Labor Code section 1725.5(a)(2)(E), if applicable, within 24 hours after the bid opening; or the subcontractor is replaced by another registered subcontractor under Public Contract Code section 4107. Failure of a listed subcontractor to be registered shall be grounds under Public Contract Code section 4107 for the Contractor, with the Owner's consent, to substitute a registered subcontractor for the unregistered subcontractor.

Failure to provide this information in a legible manner may result in the rejection of an otherwise acceptable bid.
