BERNE UNION ALMA MATER

All hail Alma Mater, we pledge our faith to thee.
In sunshine and starlight we shall thy glory see.
Maroon and gold thy glorious colors ever we praise and hold them
High to the breeze as a symbol of our highest allegiance.
To thee then, Berne Union, this anthem now is raised,
As down through the ages thy name is ever praised.

In Memoriam

The Senior Class of 1961 will always remember Mrs. Gail B. Weimer and her years at Berne Union School. She taught higher mathematics at Berne Union for nineteen years and was recognized as one of Fairfield County's top educators in this field. Her approach to teaching was gentle, but we knew she knew all the answers to the hardest questions. We also sensed that she loved teaching all of us.

She was school librarian and took much time and pride in keeping the library in order. As the seasons would come and go, the room was cheerful and beautiful with her lovely arrangements. She gave good advice to all who were seeking it, and through her encouragement she helped many students to achieve their goals.

Yes, Mrs. Weimer has gone, but we at Berne Union will always remember her and her concern for us.

ONIONS IN THE STEW

What would you do if your parents decided to move to a place away from all your friends, to a place where friends could visit you only with difficulty, to an island? This is the situation that faced two girls in the second play of the year, "Onions In The Stew."

The problem of dates when you live on an island is difficult, but so also are dinner guests who stay for days, sleeping in the lawn swing, irregular ferry boats, and three incompetent plumbers. At long last the girls persuade their parents to move back to civilization. But like most girls they decide island life has real advantages after all.

"Onions In The Stew" is based on a book of the same title by Betty MacDonald who became famous for her book "The Egg And I."
