The Board of Education is responsible to establish general policies and procedures for the operation of all schools within the district. At a specific school, the school council may adopt the Board Policy or they may develop their own unique set of rules and regulations that affect discipline and attendance as well as other aspects of the school operation. It is very important that all students and parents or guardians read and understand the foregoing Code of Acceptable Behavior and Attendance Policy booklet as well as any school-specific handbook.

This document is available publically at all times in an effort to provide parents and students with current information regarding the law, regulations, and School Board Policy regarding conduct and attendance. This policy is subject to change by a change in the law, state regulations, or School Board action without further notice to the parents and students. Please access this Code of Acceptable Behavior and Attendance at the following link:
