

Zambia

By: Natan Andebrhan

Hello my name is Natan Anderbrhan and the Country I will be representing today is Zambia. I will be able to tell you all about Zambia in my presentation.

Firstly, we will start with the population and size of Zambia. 21.13million people live in Zambia as of today and the size of Zambia is 743,390 sqare Kilometers. Now you may be wondering how Zambia got its name, this is because Zambia was named after the Zambezi river and that is how it got its name, but Zambia changed it from Northern Rhodesia to Zambia.

Zambia is located in Southern Africa. Zambia's capital is called Luska. Zambia.

You're wondering what is Zambia's tallest mountain? Well it is Mount Mumpu and located in the Central-Northern part of the country. Zambia's longest river is the Kafue River and it is located in the North-west.

Zambia's largest city is Luska, Zambia and it is Zambia's capital too. What Zambia has is that it has 10 provinces in the country. Zambia's closest countries are Angola,Congo,Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia,Tanzania, Zimbabwe,and Botswana.

The president is Hakainde Hichilema, currently the president . Zambia's flag colors represent that Green means that the country is abundant. Red means that there is freedom and independence. Black means that the people of the country. Orange means that the copper they use. All of you people don't know any historical facts about Zambia do you because Zambia has 21 million people that live there. The famous people are Kenneth Kaunda, Frederick Chiluba,

Levy Mwanawasa are the Famous people in Zambia. The language they speak is English. The food they eat is called relish. Women wear a piece of cloth around their body. The songs are 2ed beats and kalindala. There important holidays are New Years Day, Youth Day, and Independence Day.

The End By:Natan Andebrhan