

Upper School English Teacher
The Heritage School
Newnan, Georgia 30263
www.heritageschool.com

The Heritage School invites applications for a full-time Upper School English teacher, with start date options ranging from immediate placement to August 2026. High school English teaching experience is required; independent school experience is preferred.

Candidates should have classroom teaching experience focusing on high expectations for all learners. The successful candidate will model innovative teaching methods, strong communication skills, and a willingness to become an integral member of a close-knit school community and a collaborative English department.

Founded in 1970, The Heritage School is a co-educational, independent, college preparatory school committed to providing an environment that develops the mind in preparation for college and later life, the body through competition and teamwork, the spirit through self-awareness and growth, and camaraderie through shared experience. Mind, body, spirit, and camaraderie are infused throughout the opportunities offered on and off campus in academics, fine arts, athletics, and service. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a balanced approach to these areas throughout his or her personal and professional life.

Located in a pecan grove in Newnan, GA, The Heritage School's beautiful 73-acre campus offers opportunities for students and faculty from Preschool through 12th Grade to interact in meaningful ways every day. Newnan is situated in the heart of Coweta County, just south of the Atlanta airport. With a population over 130,000, the community offers families the advantages of a small town with the appeal of a nearby metropolis.

Interested and qualified candidates should submit a specific letter of interest and a resume to:

Matt Lage
Upper School Director
The Heritage School
2093 Highway 29 North Newnan, GA 30263
mlage@heritageschool.com