Clarence Teachers Make the Difference

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

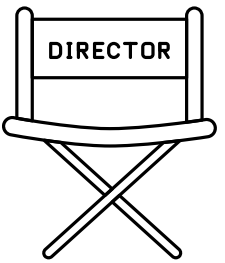

What an incredible experience it's been to work with such a talented cast and crew to bring you Clarence High School's 2026 musical, 9 to 5!

9 to 5 premiered on Broadway in 2009 and was nominated for fifteen Drama Desk Awards and four Tony Awards. Inspired by the 1980 film of the same name, the show follows three women—Violet Newstead, Judy Bernly, and Doralee Rhodes—as they struggle through their jobs at Consolidated Industries and fend off their "sexist, egotistical, lying, hypocritical" boss, Franklin Hart, Jr. It's a comedy with a big heart, and we certainly hope you enjoy the show.

Clarence is famous for its amazing musicals and plays. I've attended nearly all of them since I was first hired as an English teacher in 2006, and I remember so many incredible moments in this auditorium—laying eyes on the unbelievable set for Man of La Mancha in 2010; watching the onstage pit orchestra for Chicago in 2013; marvelling at all the actors who have graced this stage with their talents; and even performing as part of the choir in last year's performance of The Hunchback of Notre Dame, which gave me a firsthand appreciation for the countless hours that our directors put in to make sure the show comes together.

Directing the musical was a challenge I did not take lightly, beginning with the prospect of trying to replace our long-time director, Lou Vitello. I assumed it would be impossible, and I was initially reluctant to try. The good news is that I learned almost immediately that our school's legacy of amazing musicals and plays is mostly because of the kids. These students are absolutely amazing! They're talented and funny and willing to work hard until they get it right. They're a true credit to their families and to our community.

TO THE CAST AND CREW

who work way more hours

THAN 9 TO 5.

CONGRATULATIONS & GOOD LUCK

The Wyant Family

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

As teachers, we are charged with guiding students—letting them use their talents to create and learn and make mistakes and try again. I could not ask for a better group of teachers to work with. Steve Merlihan, Jon Aumiller, and Zach Meal led their stage crew team and built another fabulous set. Our stage crew has set the standard in Western New York for years, and I'm so grateful for everything they do. Jackie Bowman's costume, hair, and makeup crew had a LOT to do for this show, and she helped them put the actors in position to be successful. Andrea Runfola is simply awe-inspiring as our pit orchestra director; somehow she is able to do anything we need and make everything work. Amy Fetterly is no less awe-inspiring as our vocal director—she is able to bring entire songs together so quickly, and she makes it look effortless. Cassie Fish worked tirelessly for months on the playbill you hold in your hands, and she put up with a new director who needed more guidance than she was probably used to after many years of working with Lou.

And a special note of thanks for our choreographer, Judy Kauderer. I learned so much from sitting next to Judy at choreography rehearsals, and I was consistently amazed at her ability to keep things fun but also productive. She demanded excellence, and she got the kids to bring their energy and personalities to the roles. She put in countless hours at home, carefully planning each number, moving 25 kids around the stage and making everyone an integral part of the show. On behalf of the whole cast, thanks so much, Mrs. K!

Thanks to our student directors—Nila Aschour, Grace Kinnan, Ryan Morgante, and Brendan Swain—for all their hard work and commitment to the CHS drama program. Their backstage work allowed the other directors to focus on what was happening onstage, and the show could not have happened without their help.

Finally, thank you to our senior cast members—David Brophy, Avery Collins, Tegan Keough, Nick Kramer, Bella Marcaccio, Julian Wyant, and Bella Zinno. You are incredible young men and women, and we have loved watching you over the years. You have left a beautiful legacy at CHS, and we're honored to watch you shine like the sun one final time.

STUDENT DIRECTORS

Nila Aschour is a junior and a student director for this year's musical. She is an exchange student from Austria. Although she has had experience with theater back in Austria, this was her first American high school musical, and being part of the process has been a highlight of her exchange year. She is grateful for the opportunity to work with such a great team. She would especially like to thank the cast for adding their own creativity to the concept of due dates. Nila loved being part of this production. She will definitely miss this time and the people she worked with.

Grace Kinnan is a senior at Clarence High School, and is very excited to be student directing this year's musical, 9 to 5! She previously directed this year's play, Noises Off, and last year's play, Amadeus. She is thrilled to be returning to student directing with the musical! She has also been involved in other ways in Clarence High School's past musicals, playing cello in the pit orchestra of The Producers, Aida, and The Hunchback of Notre Dame. Grace is also a part of both Chorale and Treble Chorus, and is the alto section leader in both. She would like to congratulate the cast and crew of 9 to 5 for all of their hard work and dedication!

Ryan Morgante is thrilled to be student directing this year's Clarence High School musical, "9 to 5". She has student directed the musical since her sophomore year and has had so much fun and is so sad that this year will be her last. At CMS, Ryan played "Middle Anna" in Frozen, and "Jasmine" in Aladdin, but as she entered high school, she found that student directing was her true passion in theatre. Ryan is also a member of the Clarence High School's Chorale! Ryan would like to thank her friends and family for the support, as well as her fellow student directors who truly are her best friends and always bring a smile to her face. She would also like to thank Mr. Chambers, Ms. Runfola, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Fetterly, Mrs. Fish, Mr. Merlihan, Mr. Aumiller, and Mr. Meal. Their hard work and dedication is what has made these shows so memorable and successful. Lastly she would like to congratulate the cast and crew of "9 to 5" on an amazing, unforgettable performance!

Brendan Swain is thrilled to have been given the opportunity to be apart of the Clarence Drama Club for his fourth year now but this time as Student Director! He has no doubt that you will enjoy every second of this show just as he has. Brendan has had a long history of theatre, especially in Clarence High School. Brendan has been in shows in Clarence such as "The Play That Goes Wrong" Fall Play 2022, "The Producers" Musical 2023, "The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime" Fall Play 2023, "AIDA" Musical 2024, "Amadeus" Fall Play 2024, as well as "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" Musical 2025. Brendan would like to thank Mr. Chambers and Mrs. Fetterly for giving him this opportunity. Brendan would also like to thank the stage crew and costume crew, this show could simply not go on without them.
Please, sit back, relax, and enjoy the show!

STAGE CREW SENIORS

Thomas Bittar has been a member of Stage Crew since his Freshman year and has worked on the set of every play and musical since then. He was a stage hand for The Producers and Aida, hiding behind set pieces and moving them around at the right time. For The Hunchback of Notre Dame he worked as the stage manager, coordinating set changes and transitions. Thomas has made some of his best memories and friendships through stage crew, whether building sets or troubleshooting during rehearsals, he enjoyed every moment. Thomas thanks his Mom and Dad for always supporting him and thanks Mr. Merlihan, Mr. Aumiller and Mr. Meal for having taught him so much over the years.

Henry Duquette first began his career in theatre during middle school, starting out as part of the cast in Frozen and later taking on the supporting lead role of Kassim in Aladdin. He continued to be involved with the Drama Club but eventually transitioned to the stage and tech crew, where he discovered a new passion — along with great friends and supportive teachers and mentors. Whether he's helping out backstage or designing and coordinating the visual effects that bring performances like The Hunchback of Notre Dame and The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time to life, Henry has spent countless hours perfecting each scene to match the director's vision. His time in the Drama Club has given him a deeper understanding of film and media and will always hold a special place in his heart. He would also like to give a huge thank-you to everyone who has supported him throughout his time with the drama club and helped him become the person he is today.

Nathan Grek is enjoying his third year as a member of Stage Crew. He would like to thank his friends for convincing him to join. In college, he plans to major in electrical engineering. In his free time, he enjoys playing his trumpet, playing tennis, and hanging out with friends.

Abigail Morelli is an accomplished senior who has been a member of tech/stage crew for four years. Her lighting journey started freshman year as she looked up to her sister programming and running lights. She then found an interest in the technical side of theater production. Abby subsequently became the lead lighting designer, programmer, and light operator in the fall of her tenth grade. Between The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Aida, Amadeus, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, Noises Off, and now 9 to 5, Abby has spent hundreds of hours and countless late nights programming lights and building the set in the auditorium. She also runs lights as well as sound for district events, concerts, and shows that are held in the CHS or CMS auditoriums. Abby has loved her whole time in Drama Club and would like to thank all of the directors and people, especially Mr. Merlihan, who have played a role in shaping her great experience.

Clarke Sauls has been in Tech Crew since freshman year. Throughout the years, he has learned a lot from Tech Crew and has enjoyed all of his time there. Clarke spends his free time hanging out with his friends and plays Euphonium in the Wind Ensemble. He plans to go to college for Engineering.

Peter Pecenco is an accomplished senior who has been a dedicated member of the tech and stage crew for four years. His involvement began in middle school and continued into high school, where he discovered a strong interest in the technical side of theater productions. In his junior year, Peter became the lead audio designer and operator, managing sound for The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Aida, Amadeus, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, Noises Off, and 9 to 5: The Musical. Throughout his senior year, Peter spent countless late nights programming audio, setting up microphones, and helping build sets in the auditorium. Beyond theater, Peter also manages lighting and projections, along with the audio needs for district events, concerts, and performances held in both the CHS and CMS auditoriums. He has deeply valued his time in Drama Club and would like to thank all of the directors and crew members who helped shape his experience. Peter extends a special thank you to Mr. Merlihan for his constant support and dedication during those long nights preparing for each production.

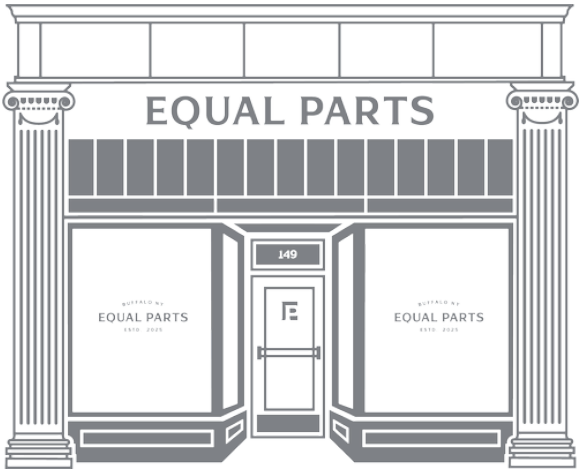

Rowan Wilkins began his stage crew career in 6th grade, working backstage for the Clarence Middle School Musical. He continued to immerse himself in stage productions, including in 8th grade when he managed the soundboard for Aladdin. His passion for theater carried through to high school, where he spent the next four years as part of the Clarence High School Stage and Tech Crew. During this time, Rowan contributed to every fall and spring theatrical performance, working backstage, at the sound board and in the light booth. Notably, he also gained a particular expertise in managing and wiring stage LED lights and candles. Rowan would like to thank Mr. Merlihan, Mr. Aumiller, and Mr. Meal for their invaluable guidance throughout his time with Stage and Tech Crew, and is excited to be apart of his final musical, 9 to 5.
