Discussion Topics (ALL)

1. President Update & Welcome (Melinda)
2. Principal Update (Ms. Stedeford)
 - New art supplies and recess equipment
 - Midterm student reviews taking place
3. Coordinator Updates
 - a. Spelling Bee - January 15 (Melinda)
 - First spelling bee practice went well
 - Will put out basic comms ahead of Bee and post winners after
 - b. Pastries with Parents - February 13 (Tara)
 - Donut Shop gives a 10% discount and delivers donuts
 - 62 dozen donuts; coffee for parents
 - Need 8 volunteers
 - Post save the date this week
 - c. Starstruck - March 3 (Stacy)
 - One night on Tuesday, March 3, 2026
 - Moved to Sutter Middle School
 - Half of the school will be at 5:30pm and the other half at 6:30pm
 - No tickets this year
 - Communications will need to start ASAP
 - School practice starts on January 21, 2026
 - Decorations will be minimal, since Stacy will not be able to get into SMS early
 - Classroom parents will need to start planning costumes/accessories, once the songs are given out.
 - Probably no snacks for the kids this year either. They will be all sitting in a side room next to the stage.
 - d. Foxtrot - March 13 (Erin)

- Eric Pine will MC again
 - Erin will send comms to Lauren soon
 - Conor will shadow this year and coordinate next year
- e. Science Fair - April 1 (Eric)
- Eric will send flyer to Lauren for posting next week
 - Tara and Eric will run day of logistics
 - Need to coordinate with office to avoid pulling students from recess, PE, etc.
- f. Bookfair (Jess)
- Summary of winter bookfair
 - a. Revenue: $8,142
 - b. Used Scholastic funds to order teacher books and 4th/5th grade novels
 - i. Jess emphasized that teachers should ask PTA for grade novels first before purchasing themselves; PTA is happy to purchase
 - Ruby's bookfair will be in March; details to come
 - Ashley Garcia is taking over 2026-27 book fairs and is shadowing Jess this year
- g. Holiday Breakfast Summary (Cheyenne)
- Spent $3,700; close to original proposal
 - Huge turnout; consider next year how we get a more accurate headcount
 - Teen volunteers were a great addition
 - Food lines were super long; considerations for next year:
 - a. Teen volunteers help serve
 - b. Additional coffee cart
- ii. Foxes Unplugged (Jessica)
- Screen Awareness Week proposed for possibly this spring or fall of new school year
 - a. Curriculum from Common Sense Media; maybe enlist parent volunteers to facilitate
 - b. Proposal to provide Amazing Generation to 4th/5th graders
 - Cyber Cop presentation
 - a. Includes 3 student assemblies and parent night for $8,000
 - b. Cost can be split between schools
 - c. Cost-effective alternative could be a FPD law enforcement partner that offers these presentations for free to parents; Megan's contact
- iii. Additional Teacher Grants (Megan)
- Will go out shortly
