

Auditions for the spring play, Journey to the Poles of Inaccessibility by Craig Pospisil, will take place the week of March 9th. General auditions will be Monday, March 9th, starting at 3 pm. Callbacks will be held Tuesday, March 10th beginning at 3:00pm in the Theatre.

Rehearsals will begin the week of March 16th. Rehearsal times are flexible and the schedule will be set after the cast is decided. Most rehearsals will be after school on Monday thru Friday, although evenings and weekends may be scheduled as needed. Actors will not be called for all rehearsal days. The rehearsal schedule for the week of April 7th dress rehearsals will be discussed later. If cast, you must attend all run-thrus and dress rehearsals. Performances are Thursday, April 30th, Friday, May 1st, and Saturday, May 2nd. Mandatory all-cast and all-crew set strike will be on Sunday, May 3rd.

IMPORTANT AUDITION INFORMATION

Auditions:

Auditions will be Monday, March 19th from 3 pm to 4:30 pm. They will be first-come, first-serve. Please check in at the table in the choir room when you arrive. You must be in line by 4:30 pm to audition. You will also need to fill out the Audition Form before your audition.

Audition Monologues:

Please prepare a 30 - 60 second monologue of your choice. The monologue should be memorized and you should make strong acting choices in your performance while also demonstrating understanding of the material and performance techniques.

Synopsis:

If magic was real, how far would you travel to find it? Dylan is comfortable with his insular life, working in insurance and living with his wheelchair-bound aunt. Then he meets Chris, a woman of boundless energy, on a quest to gather what magic is left in the world at the eight Poles of Inaccessibility, the Earth's most remote places. Dylan and Chris circle the globe on an epic journey of discovery, comedy, danger, and romance.
