The McKinney-Vento Homelessness Assistance Act is reauthorized by Title X Part C, of No Child Left Behind Act. This legislation ensures the educational rights and protection of children and youth experiencing homelessness and provides for equal access to an appropriate education so that they may experience success in school.

The McKinney Vento Act provides certain rights for homeless students. They include waiving certain requirements such as proof of residency when students are enrolling and allowing categorical eligibility for certain services, such as free textbooks. The Act also states:

- Homeless students must be provided a written statement of their rights when they enroll and at least two times per year
- Homeless students may enroll without school, medical, or similar records
- Homeless students have a right to transportation to school
- Students must be provided a statement explaining why they are denied any service or enrollment
- Students must receive services, such as transportation, while disputes are being settled
- Students are automatically eligible for Title I services
- School districts must reserve a portion of Title IA funds to serve homeless students
- School districts must review and revise policies that provide barriers to homeless students
- Schools must post information in the community regarding the rights of homeless students, in schools and other places that homeless families may frequent
