To The Global Parent:

You may add valuable insight and information which will help us paint a more complete picture of your student.

1. What three adjectives/words immediately come to your mind when you think of your student?
2. Briefly describe incidents/events which illustrate the qualities above.
3. Explain how your child has reacted to any unusual circumstances or situations in the Life of your family.
4. Give any other information about your student that you would like to share or "Brag about"
