SNOWcoming 2026

KHS Student Council will host the Snowcoming Dance on February 14th from 7:30-10:00pm in the KHS Cafeteria.

Cost is $5 at the door.

Entry closes at 8:00pm and students are not allowed in after that point.

PICK UP PROBLEMS

Just a reminder that after school car rider pick up has to occur at door 7-the Auditorium. We are seeing a lot of cars pulling up and parking by the locker rooms-door 12. We ask that you do not park in that area at any time.

Thanks for your help and understanding.

Stay Safe, SPEAK UP!

By working together, we can continue to keep our schools safe!

SRO Beatrice met with students this week to introduce a new app and reporting system. We encourage everyone to use this system to report safety concerns such as: bullying, threats of self harm or harm to others, drugs, weapons and/or any texts, photos or videos that promote violence. Please see that attached flyer for more information.

Work Based Learning Spotlight

Courier Times

Senior Grace Behny is currently gaining professional experience as a staff writer for the Courier Times through the Work-Based Learning (WBL) program. With a clear focus on pursuing a career in sports journalism and a plan to study it in college, Grace is building a strong portfolio by contributing two articles weekly to the paper. Her regular features center on engaging stories and events within the Knightstown community.
