Summer Program Opportunity for Low-Income Families

For Summer 2026, the University of Chicago will host both residential programs and online courses, including our 1 Week Enrichment Programs.

Whether it be leadership, civil discourse, analysis of complex problems, or engagement in the liberal arts, enrichment programs give pre-college students a window into the unique culture of inquiry and discourse at the University of Chicago. Students selected for each program have the opportunity to reside on campus and participate in discussions, workshops, and excursions off campus.
Significant financial aid is available, including funding to cover roundtrip travel expenses for students who qualify. Students whose annual household income is $125,000 or less are automatically eligible for a waiver of the $2,500 program fee, and students whose household income is $60,000 or less are also eligible for a waiver of roundtrip travel expenses. The application fee is automatically waived for students applying for aid.

Interested students should complete the Summer Session application by March 12 to be considered for any of their enrichment programs.

Opportunities for Students Interested in ACCOUNTING

Applications Open Soon for the ACAP Seattle's 2026 Residency Week

The Seattle Accounting Career Awareness Program's annual Summer Residency Week program at the University of Washington's Foster School of Business seeks to inspire underrepresented students to consider academic and career opportunities in accounting and business.

This free, week-long residential program for rising WA state high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors introduces participants to accounting and the many opportunities offered in a career field actively seeking to diversify its workforce. Participants reside on campus, learn in and out of the classroom, visit accounting firms, build valuable life skills, and network with other students and diverse professionals while enjoying a taste of campus life.

This program is 100% free and includes housing in campus dorms, food, and all activities. Applications for the July 19-24, 2026 Residency Week program will open on February 23, with a priority deadline of April 3, 2026.

2026 TIPS (Teens in Public Service) Summer Internship

For more than 25 years, TIPS has provided over 1,200 student leaders with paid summer internships at more than 230 nonprofits in the Greater Puget Sound Region, collectively putting in over 230,000 hours of public service. These internships offer teens practical work experience, an understanding of ethical leadership, and a venue to put their values into action. For many of our interns, this is their first professional experience. Our internship program is designed to provide them the tools to take initiative and serve our community. In addition, our nonprofit partners gain additional staff during the summer at no cost to their organizations, along with the youth voice and perspective our interns bring.
Join TIPS for a Virtual Intern Informational Session on Monday, February 23, 4-5 pm by registering here.
Sessions will take place over Zoom and meeting details will be sent to all registered attendees the day before your chosen session. During the session, we will cover the following:

1. An overview of the TIPS internship program
2. How to apply for a TIPS summer internship
3. Answer questions about the application process and internship experience
4. Hear from a recent TIPS alumni (as scheduling allows)
5. Discuss best practices for filling out your application
