

2026 Summer Literacy Institute

Meaning Makers

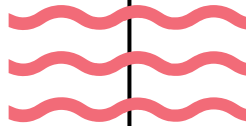

inclusive by design, joyful in practice

Join us for two joyful days of interactive learning focused on building readers who understand what they read, talk about their thinking, and feel confident engaging with rich nonfiction!

We will dive into:

- Vocabulary that develops language and thinking
- Background knowledge that boosts comprehension
- Fluency that supports meaning (not just speed!)
- Text structure and genre that make comprehension visible
- Inclusive practices that support multilingual learners
- Joyful application that you can take straight to the classroom

Save the Date!

June 16-17, 2026

Registration coming soon!

You can expect:

Learning in community

Bonus Lunch + Learn sessions

Shared nonfiction anchor texts

Stipends for public school teachers