    - Families who have relocated after the deadline (documentation must be provided, exs: PCS orders, lease, house contract, etc.).
- Tuition for Out-of-County applications must be paid prior to the first day of the school year, or the Out-of-County approval will be cancelled, and the student will have to attend school in their home county.

    - The parent is responsible for transportation.
    - The transfer or reassignment is valid for no more than one school year.
    - Student must demonstrate that he or she was in good standing in the previous school in terms of conduct, academics, and attendance.
    - Any transfer request that is approved based on false or misleading information will be declared void and the transfer will be rescinded.
