March is Youth Art Month and we are so excited to deck the halls, our website, and the walls of our local bakery with some amazing ART created by wonderful young ARTISTS! For more information on what YAM is all about visit our Biglerville Elementary Art website!

While there, be sure to check out what we explored for Cultural Arts Day this year.

Also. . . please stop by and visit the Art Studio anytime during our parent/teacher conferences, where you can view some of the amazing artwork in person and see what we are working on in the studio.
