URBAN BLUES BASKETBALL CAMP
BLUES
WITH COACH JOE SKIFFER

Your chance to learn from one of San Francisco's best coaches!

Join Coach Joe Skiffer and members of Urban's Blues basketball program for a fast-paced, skills-based, summer camp for students entering 5th-9th grade in the fall.

- Mornings are devoted to offensive skills enhancement with emphasis on shooting, dribbling, footwork, and player movement without the ball.
- Defensive concepts include emphasis on floor position, defending the ball, talk, and footwork.
- Afternoons will focus on competition, games, and learning to be a good teammate.
- Camp will highlight the two things players can control on and off the court – effort and attitude.

KALI HEYS | CAMP DIRECTOR AND HEAD COACH

Kali is a dedicated and accomplished coach who started her coaching journey at Urban in the fall of 2014. Currently serving as Urban's Associate Director of Athletics, Kali's passion for volleyball has been a driving force throughout her life. Her love for the sport was ignited in middle school, and she went on to play competitively for an impressive decade. At The University of Arizona, Kali played four years of club volleyball, consistently ranking in the top 10 nationwide. Since joining Urban, she restarted the boys volleyball program in 2017 and has led them to back-to-back league titles in 2022 and 2023. As head varsity girls volleyball coach, she led the team to qualify for the NCS every year since 2017. In 2023, under her leadership, the girls varsity volleyball team won the NCS Division 5 championship for the first time in school history. In 2025, she led the girls varsity team to a Division 4 NCS championship.
