

Jason Buley Memorial Scholarship

Jason M. Buley was a Whitesboro police officer who passed away unexpectedly in 2021. His wife and daughter hold a fundraiser every year to raise money for a scholarship to give away in his memory to a graduate pursuing a career in law enforcement. The only requirement is the student must already be accepted into a law enforcement program. If you would also like to add a short paragraph on why your interested in going into law enforcement it would be appreciated.
