American Heart Association

- The American Heart Association (AHA) partners with Fort Worth ISD (FWISD) to improve student, staff, and community health through CPR training, the Kids Heart Challenge, and on-campus resources.
- Recognized as a “District of Lifesavers,” FWISD implements these programs to enhance cardiac emergency responses and promote healthy lifestyles.
- The Kids Heart Challenge program is active across all FWISD campuses to encourage physical activity and heart health.
- The AHA, along with Medical City Healthcare, established a food pantry at Caesar Chavez Elementary to tackle food insecurity and promote heart health in the community.
