SENIORS page 100

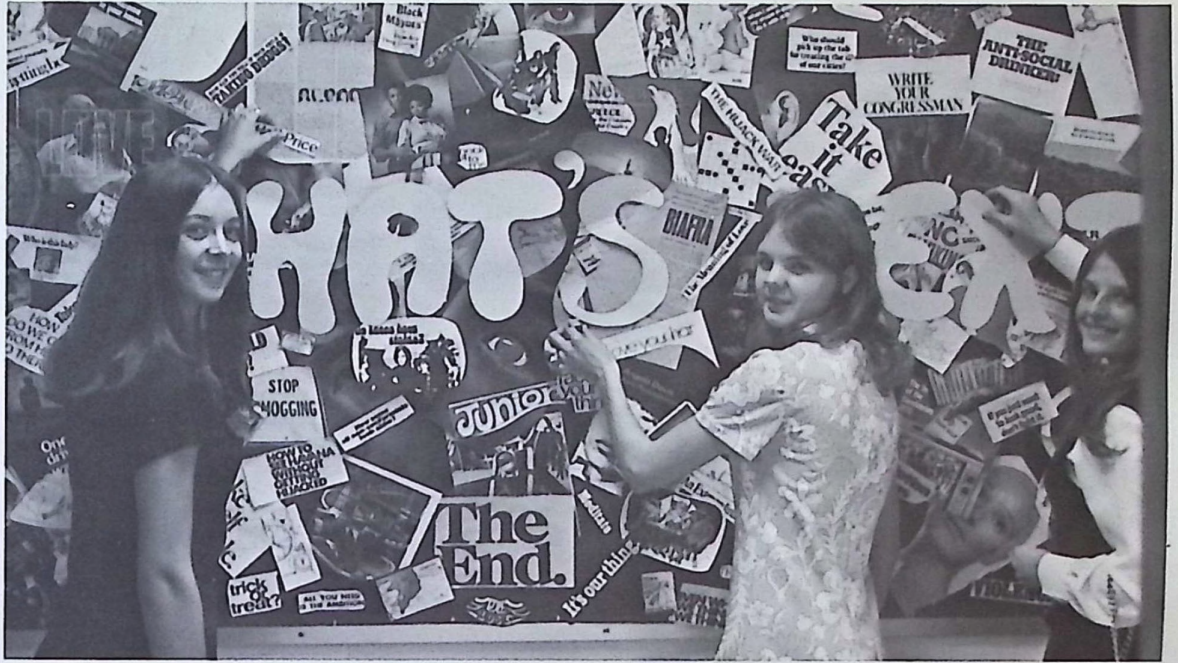

To start another year . . . and wonder why . . . then finding it is your foundation of life . . . and your muscle of smiles. Life goes on and so must you in every way you know how.

There are times when you can do the things you just love to do . . . sometimes thrilling . . . sometimes relaxing . . . other times you just want to be with your friends and enjoy companionship with the people whom you've known all your life.

A Collage

Of Music

All activities seem to be dying away . . . then, suddenly, you can hear the music playing . . . the Variety Show brings you back to life again . . . laugh out loud . . . sing Alleluia . . . the practices . . . the worries . . . the criticism . . . the lights go on . . . the M.C.'s announcement . . . and there you are . . . YOU'RE ON!

Radcliff, Sophomore Beth Shull, Freshman Sandra Hockman.

Homecoming Nineteen Hundred Seventy

The word "Queen" is the title being asked . . . in our halls . . . in our rooms . . . who will it be . . . then that special night appears out of the autumn wind . . . our last home game . . . and, for some, their last . . . the dance and that special date . . . then the snow begins and all is forgotten for some . . . but, for others, never.

THE SENIOR CLASS PLAY

THEY ... RUN ... IN ... OUR ...
FAMILY ... You can see these words painted all over memory wall ... think of how it began ... the preparation ... dress rehearsal ... the make up ... opening night ... then it's all over ... and you wish it had just begun.

The Junior Class

Presents:

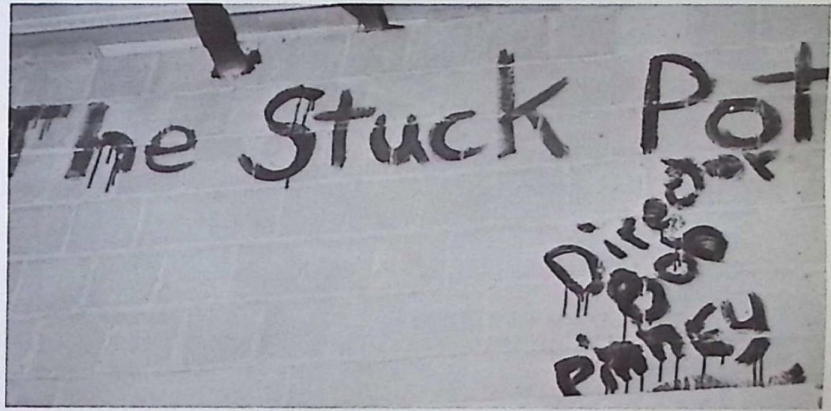

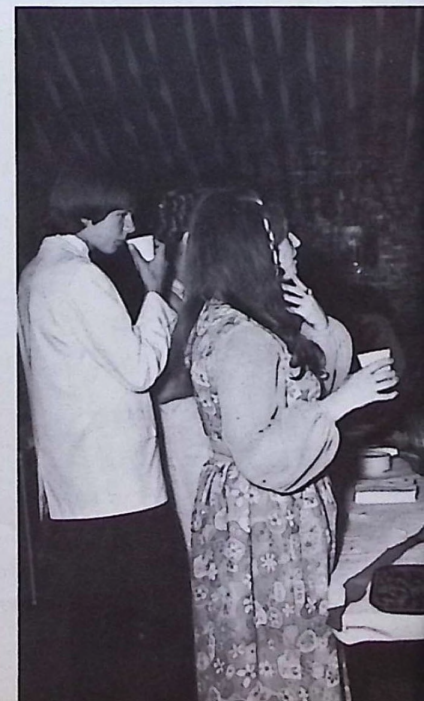

FIRST ROW: K. Kilbarger, D. Grile, B. Brannon, R. Miller, D. Snoke, R. Thimmes, M. Moody, T. Cupp, T. Radcliff, R. Williams, S. Saunders, T. Cave, J. McCrady, D. Shull, T. Daubenmire, B. Sharp, C. Brisker, J. Balthaser, J. Wharton, M. Thomas, B. Smith. SECOND ROW: R. Smith, J. Uhl, J. Hacker, G. Dennis.

The Stuck Pot

The tryouts are over ... the cast is chosen ... the dates are set ... practices begin ... the play takes form ... Mr. Pinney's comments ... last minute memorization ... the curtain opens ... there's mom and dad ... the stage is yours ...

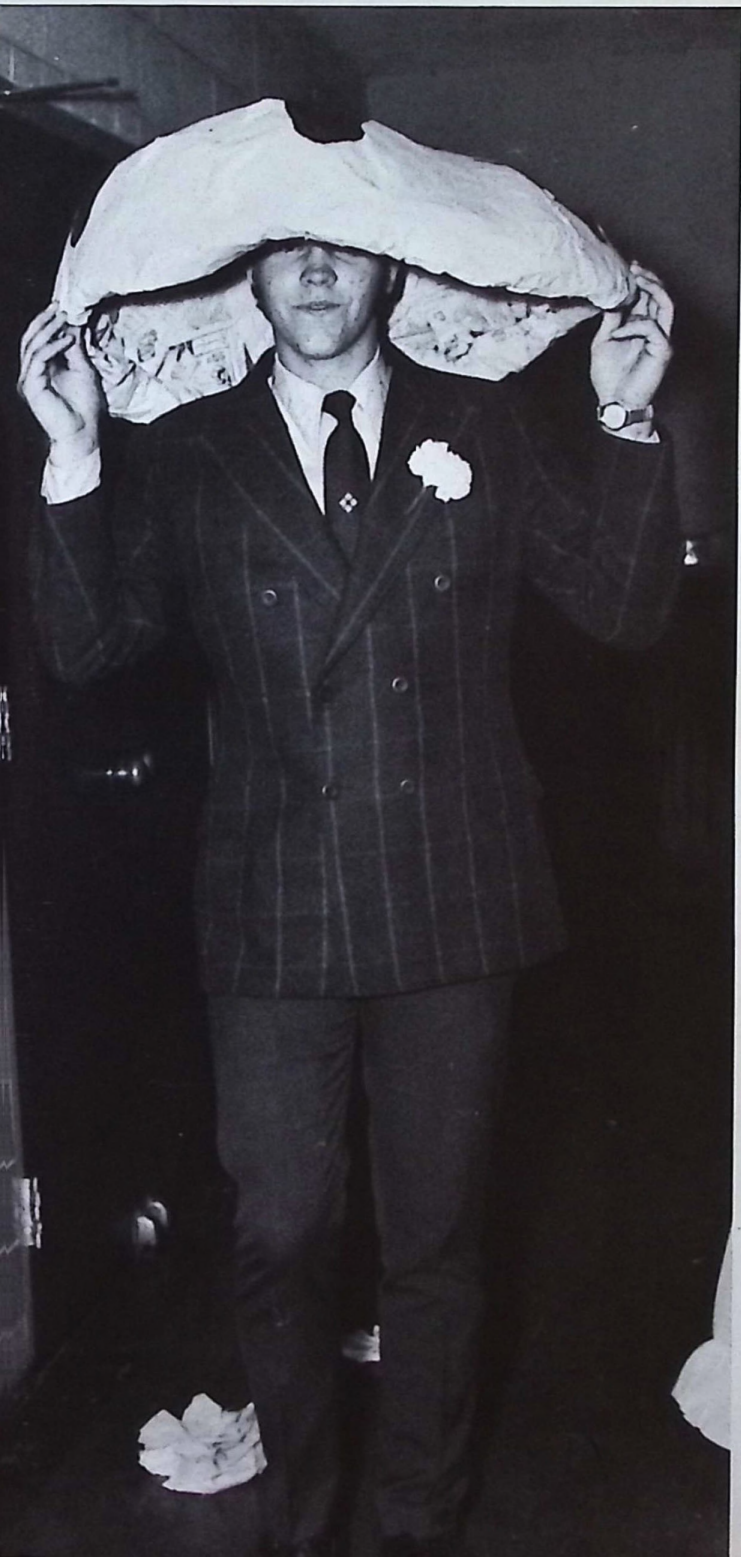

The Enchanted Forest

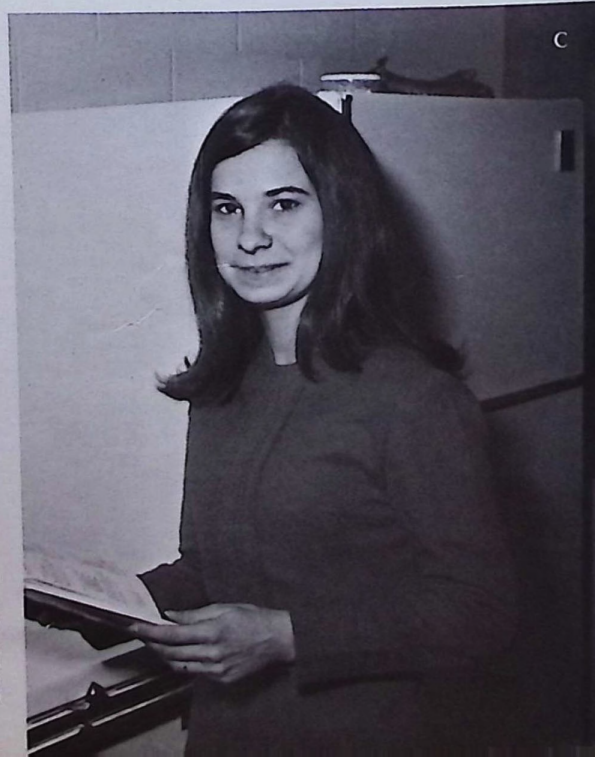

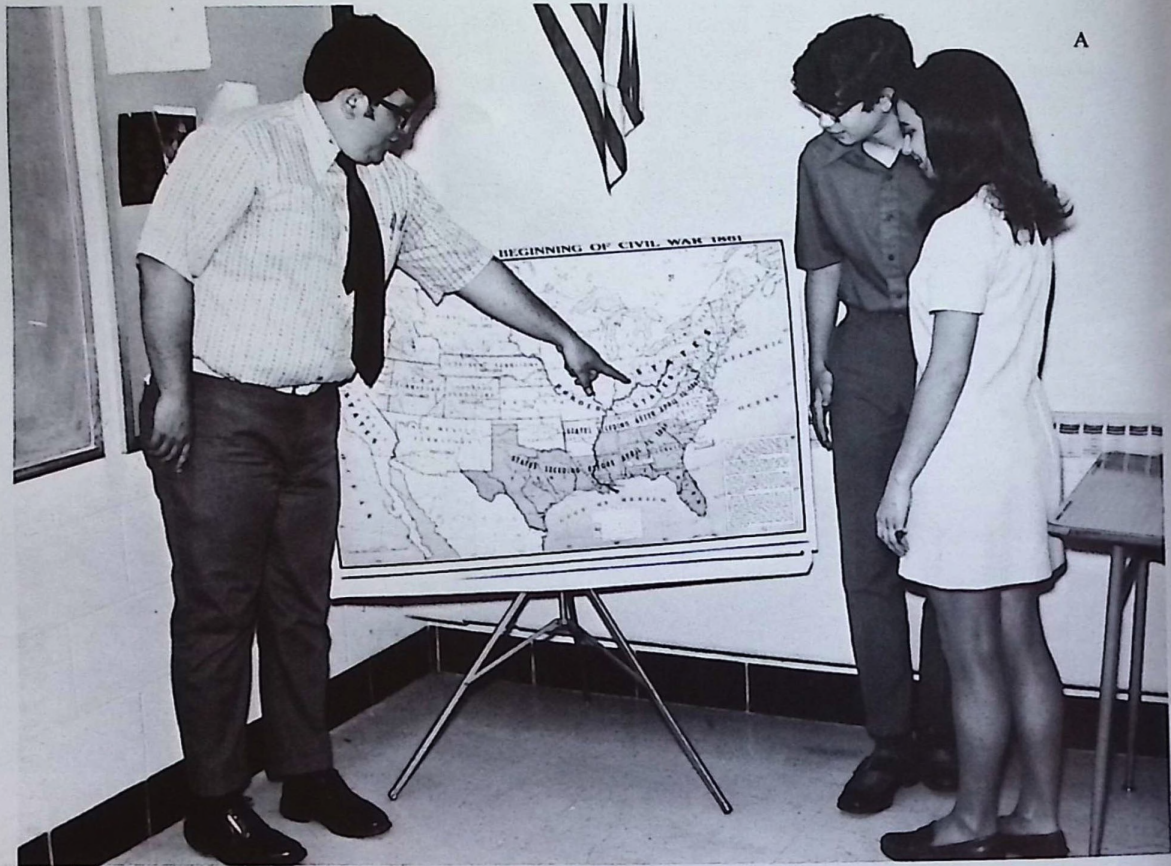

The bridge at the entrance . . . bees swarming around the beehive . . . mushrooms sprouting from the gym floor . . . the dark cave . . . all combined into a kaleidoscope of sights and sounds.

The buffet . . . gluttony prevails . . . mingling with the crowd . . . joking, talking . . . the Reynoldsburg Stage Band . . . filching the decorations . . . bowling at the Tiki . . . the jukebox blaring . . . the breakfast . . . and the sun appears.

A. STUDENT COUNCIL: M. Hurst, B. Barnhart, M. Decker, S. Kilbarger, J. Stoner, L. Montgomery, J. Wharton, B. Derflinger, K. Burke, B. Shull, D. Cochenour, K. Kilbarger, S. Hockman, B. Shull, Mr. Berry, B. Harrison.

B. MORNING ANNOUNCERS: CLOCKWISE: Pres. — B. Harrison, Vice-Pres. — D. Cochenour, Recording Sec'y K. Burke, Treas. — B. Derflinger, Corresponding Sec'y. — J. Wharton, Parliamentarian — L. Montgomery.

President Barb Harrison attended the Ohio Association of Student Councils Workshop in July to learn some of the ways in which a Student Council can function. The Council officers gave the morning announcements which included a Thought for the Day, and provided a suggestion box which enabled students to participate in forming school policies. The club sponsored the Homecoming festivities in the fall. To raise funds and to promote school spirit, the club sold B.U. buttons and pennants. The club also sponsored a coat check at the basketball games. In the spring, the Student Council conducted the election of all class officers and Student Council President. Each candidate was required to circulate a petition, and all candidates for a presidency were required to give a speech.

Students Are Involved In Sports,

The Varsity "B" sponsored a dance and sold sweatshirts to raise funds. The officers for this year are James Uhl — President, Doug Crozier — Vice-President, and Rodney Hughes — Secretary-Treasurer.

The Commercial Club took over the production of the school newspaper, the "Events," and renamed it "B.U. In the News." Karen Kilbarger was elected President; Molly Moody, Vice-President; and Cathy Brisker, Treasurer. The members of the club acted as reporters or artists for the newspaper.

At West Jefferson

The Marching Band began its season by marching at Bexley and at Sugar Grove in the Fourth of July parades. They also marched in the Parade of the Hills at Nelsonville, the Sweet Corn Festival at Millersport, and the Labor Day Parade at Jackson. The Band received a second place trophy in parade competition and a second place trophy in field maneuvers at the Marietta Band-O-Rama. At West Jefferson, they received a first place trophy in field maneuvers. The Band was honored to perform during halftime at a Capital University football game. They also participated in a parade at the Mining and Manufacturing Festival in Cadiz, Ohio. The Band also performed at the Fairfield County Fair and at Ohio University, Athens, for Band Day.

Stage Band Receives Standing Ovation At Concert

The Concert Band began its activities by sending nine representatives to the Ohio Wesleyan Music Festival. The Concert Band received a I, or Superior rating at the District Contest, which enabled it to enter the State Contest where it received a II, or Excellent rating. Berne Union boasted twenty-three members and five first chair positions in the All-County Band. The Band was well represented at the Jr. High Solo and Ensemble Contest. The Brass Sextet, Flute Trio, Percussion Quartet, and Sharma Wharton each received a I rating. Don Heston and Cindy Foss received a II rating on their solos. The Clarinet Quartet received a III rating.

F.H.A. Emphasizes Community Service

The F.H.A. started off the year by sponsoring a bakesale in July to finance Kathy Bibler's trip to New York for the National F.H.A. Convention. F.H.A. members attended the Fall County Rally held at Liberty Union. The girls helped out with the Muscular Dystrophy Drive in November. At their Christmas party, they went caroling and delivered Christmas cards to the patients at Campbell's Nursing Home. In February all the girls collected for the Heart Fund Drive. The Spring County Rally was held at Thomas Ewing Jr. High. The F.H.A. served at the tea held in honor of the newly inducted members of the Honor Society. March 28 to April 3 was National F.H.A. Week. The members planned special projects to commemorate the week such as holding a bakesale, wearing name tags, providing cookies every day for the teachers' lounge, and making new curtains for the elementary teachers' lounge. April 16-17 nine members and two advisors attended the State F.H.A. Convention at Vets Memorial. The girls honored their mothers at a Mother-Daughter Banquet held on April 29.

IN MEMORIAM

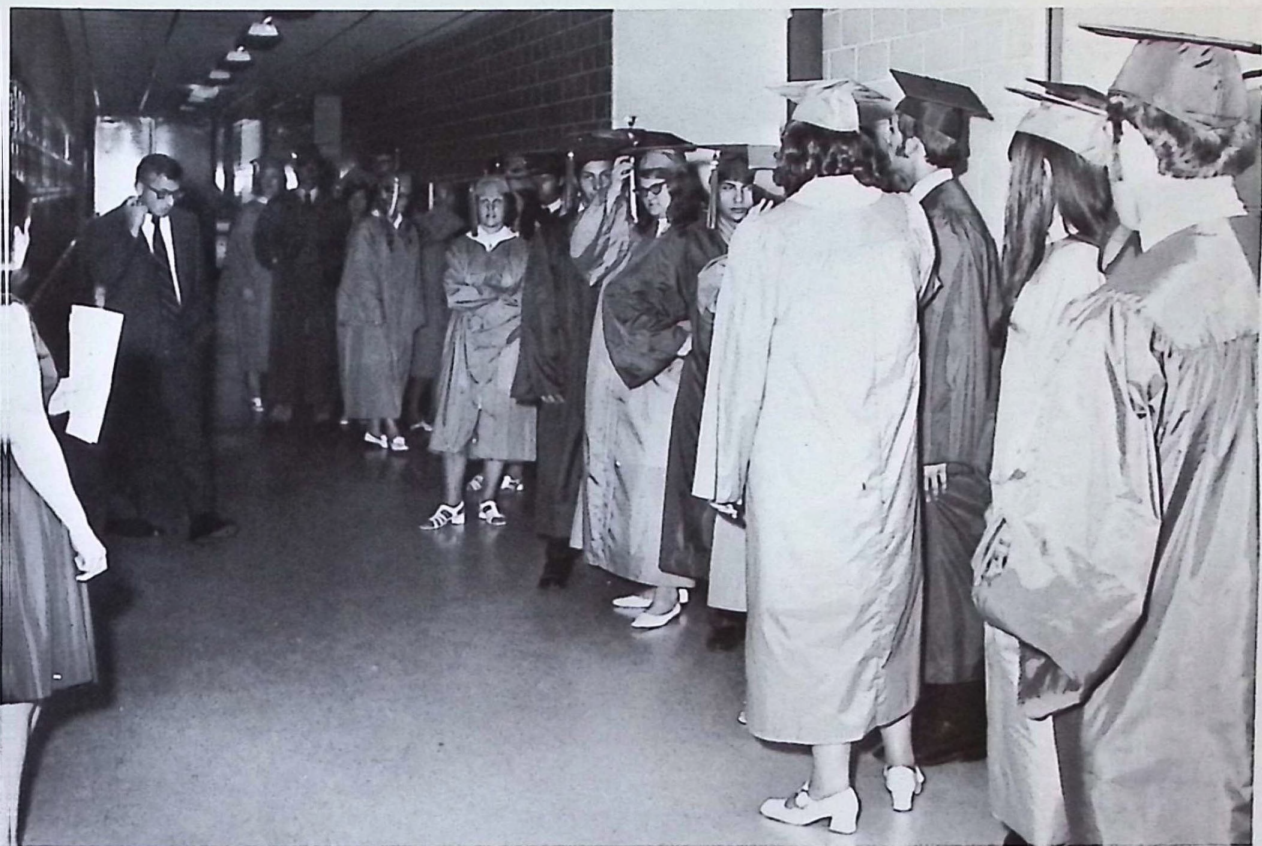

DEBORAH ELAINE SCHMELTZER

RICKY ALLEN BOWERS

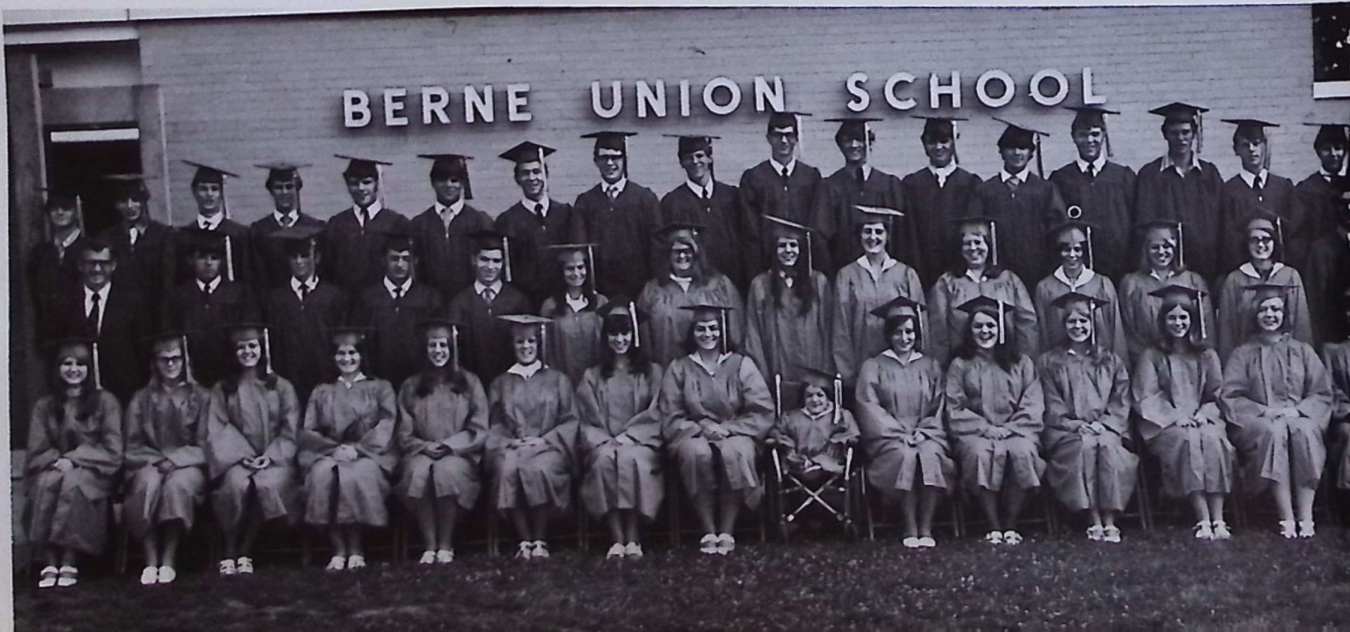

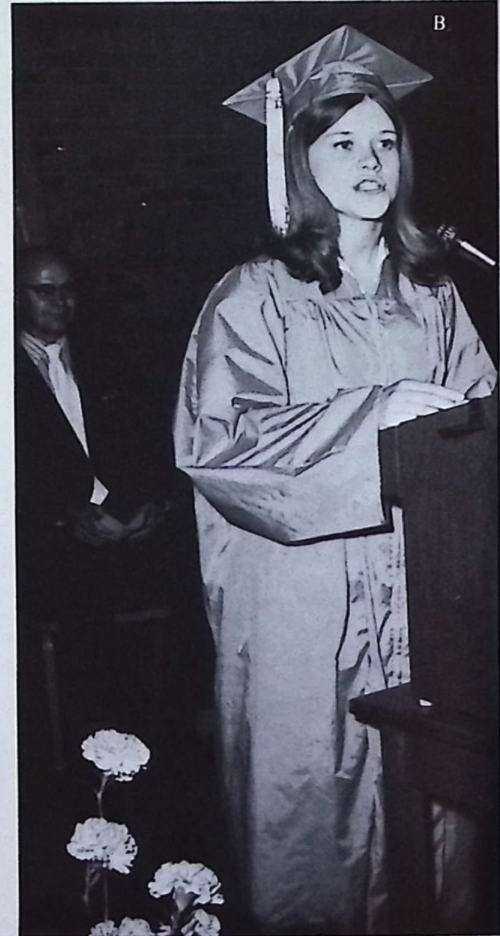

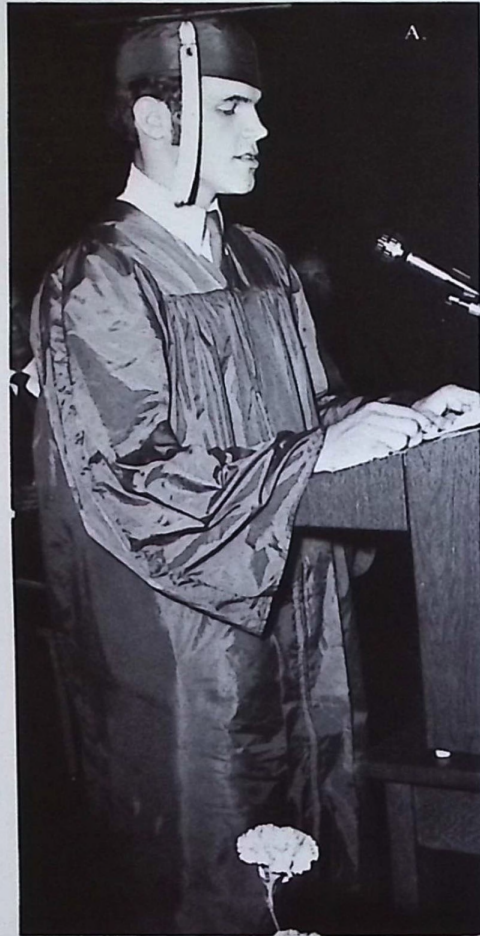

The members of the Senior Class wish to express their great sorrow at the loss of Debbie Schmeltzer and Ricky Bowers. As members of our class they participated in our activities and set a fine example for each of us to follow. They have gone ahead, but our memories of them will never fade.

Waiting in the halls . . . lining up in order . . . fidgeting with our caps and gowns . . . the trumpet fanfare . . . marching down the aisles . . . Mr. Melvin Murray presenting "An Indifferent Drummer" . . . Mr. Chesser presenting the class to the Board President . . . accepting our diplomas . . . the pride in the eyes of our families . . . the tearful smiles . . . each asking what will the future hold?

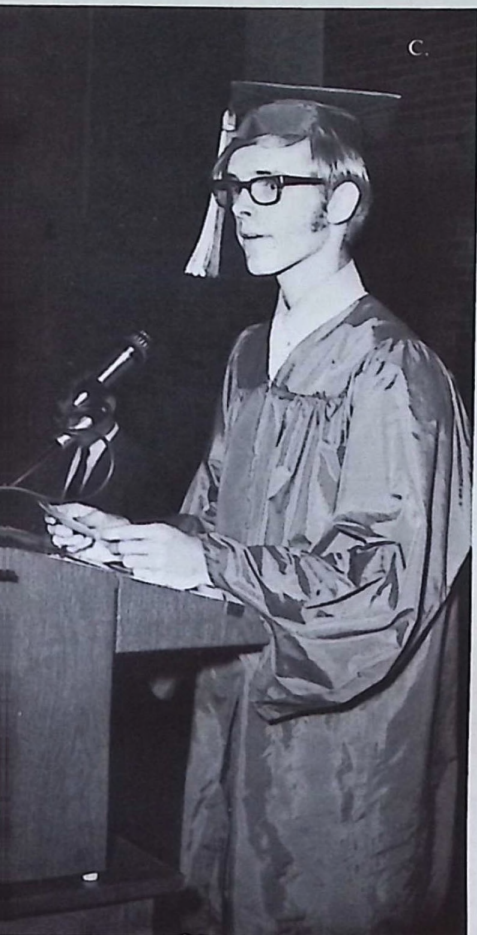

We Know Not What the Future Holds

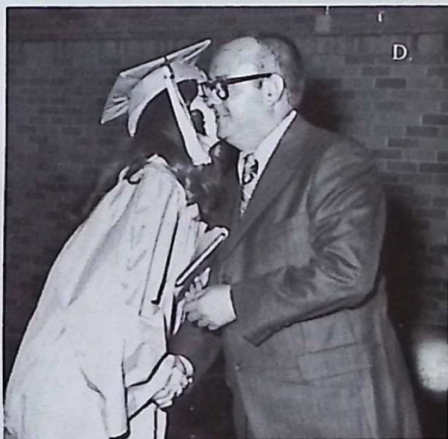

From the past we have gained much experience which will guide us in the future as we realize the essence of our lives.

But We Know Who Holds the Future

- A. Co-Valedictorian Dean Cochenour
- B. Salutatorian Terrie Scott
- C. Co-Valedictorian Bruce Shull
- D. Paula Bash receives her diploma and a kiss from her father.
- E. Mike Coleman accepts his diploma from School Board

President Paul Bash.
