

Cedar Class – DT Plan

Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Stone Age A cave diorama Food Tech – introduction to the eat well plate and healthy breakfasts  Designing Using a shell structure to make a model cave Generate ideas to make a model of a Stone Age cave Use annotated sketches Order the main stages of the making process Use appropriate materials and tools (papier mache)	Restless Earth Pneumatics – pneumatic model volcano Food Tech – keeping food fresh Design – use simple pneumatics to create a model with moving parts Formulate ideas which are plausible Use diagrams to illustrate the making process Use different methods to join components Evaluate the functionality of the product and make suggestions for improvement/refinement Food Technology Understand some of the basics of food hygiene e.g.	Bonjour Food Tech Making cherry clafoutis Begin to use digital scales Begin to use a measuring jug Whisk ingredients to make a batter Crack an egg Find out about chef Raymond Blanc	A Child's War Textiles – Lowry peg dolls  Create designs which are realistic Create designs which are based on research in the product field Plan the main making stages and use annotated, sequenced diagrams as a guide Create a pattern to use for garment creation Select fabrics and fastenings appropriately	Rainforests Food Tech – seasonality Salad making Understands the Eatwell plate and balanced diet Understands the need to remain hydrated and have plenty of water Begins to peel harder vegetables such as carrots Begins to cut ingredients into bite size pieces (under close supervision) Suggests ingredients to combine

Evaluate the finished product	Cleaning tables before cooking Using clean tea towels for drying Knowing which products can be stored where and identifying shelf life by checking dates etc.		Select tools for purpose Evaluate the aesthetic impact of the product Make suggestion for future work	Follows a simple recipe (Greek salad)
-------------------------------	--	--	--	---------------------------------------	--