

WELCOME TO THE PACK!!

ALL BULLDOG... ALL IN!!!

Good afternoon, Bulldog Family!

This is the last week before spring break, and it's important to stay on top of assignments and grades. With so many extracurricular activities going on this week, students should be communicating with classroom teachers to get assignments completed and submitted on time.

This past week, we saw our Bulldogs do great things! Our amazing 9th grade Beta members packed over 300 meals for our community! So proud of these students for stepping up and making a difference! Our girls powerlifting team, competed in the unequipped division, at the Regional Meet on Wednesday. Molly Lam finished 10th and set a new PR in bench. Elise Dinnean finished 7th. Sienna Stanley medaled with a 4th place finish and PR'd in squat and deadlift, barely missing qualifying for State. Brookelynn Wagner is a Regional Championship, and PR'd in every event. She was awarded Outstanding Deadlift, and advances to the State Meet only 5 lbs behind the top seed. This team of four competed so well that they amassed enough points to place 6th out of 28 teams, and 1st - 4th were all 4A-6A teams! I want to make sure to devote enough space to our equipped division and get pictures, so this will go out in next week's newsletter. Additionally, I'll include our men's powerlifting regional qualifiers.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Shields was recognized at the Parker Co. Retired Teacher's Luncheon and awarded a grant.

All-District Academic Honors were awarded to Dillon Clay, Lane King, Mavrick Florzak, Cameron Allen, and Gabe Jones. Gabe Jones and was named 1st Team, John Gravens was named 2nd Team, and Cameron Allen was named Newcomer of the Year.

On Wednesday, Bulldog Golf hit the links. Liv Delgado led the way for the girls, finishing 2nd place individually, and the varsity girls team placed 3rd overall. The boys team also finished 3rd overall, led by Miles Griffin who shot his personal best score of 98.

The Pride of Millsap continues to set the standard for excellence! For the 8th consecutive year, our incredible Bulldog Band has earned the Sweepstakes Trophy at UIL Concert and Sight Reading—a truly remarkable accomplishment that speaks volumes about the dedication, talent, and hard work of these outstanding students. Congratulations to every member of the band for representing Millsap with such pride and excellence. Bravo on yet another amazing victory! The tradition of greatness continues!

Our Track team competed at Rio Vista last night and had over 50 PRs as a group! Congratulations to all these athletes. See the results later in the newsletter.

Big Congratulations to Millsap High School One Act Play! Millsap High School competed in the District 8 Zone UIL One Act Play and we are thrilled to announce that we advanced to District! Our talented students also brought home some amazing individual honors:

- *Best Techie: Toby Vollmer
- *Honorable Mention Acting: Gage Grozier & Abbie Carouth
- *All-Star Cast: Corbin Vollmer & Mackie Fulenwider
- *Best Performer: Logan Boardman

We are incredibly proud of this hardworking cast and crew for representing Millsap with such talent and dedication! Next up, the team will compete again in Graham on March 23rd and 24th for the District competition. Let's cheer them on as they continue this exciting journey!

CDE season is here! We kicked off yesterday with Jack Co/Jacksboro CDE contest with our Milk, Wildlife, Vet and Floral teams

Today we loaded the bus with Livestock, Vet, Floral, Entomology, Milk and Wildlife. Our Milk and Floral team both came home with 3rd place finishes! Congrats & keep working hard for a great season!

Our softball girls showed up and took the win over Dublin at home! Proud of the hustle, teamwork, and Bulldog spirit in the dugout and on the field. Way to defend the home field!

Proud to be a Bulldog,

Lisa Deaver
MHS Principal
