

Food For All

Brown County Food Resource Fair

This event brings together local organizations, food pantries, and community partners to share information about food access, nutrition programs, and supportive resources available in Brown County.

Community members and families are invited to visit booths and tables, ask questions, and learn about options that support household food security. The fair will also include food demonstrations and nutrition education, offering practical tips and ideas for preparing healthy meals.

Kid-friendly activities will be available, making this a welcoming and engaging event for families of all ages.
