

AIHS 16th Weekly Announcements

March 8, 2026

WELCOME TO THE 16th NEWSLETTER

I know it's been the first newsletter in a while...Snow and vacations have slowed down the publishing house here, but we are back! Just a quick one so you have reminders for the week!

REMINDER: There will be NO SCHOOL on Tuesday, March 10th...Teachers will be having professional development.

In case anyone is looking for a part-time job this might be something for you!

I just wanted to give a shout out to Katherine...(Or, as I call her, "Katherine the Great!") Thanks to the snow, this has been the winter of a lot of discontent and Katherine has been right in the thick of it...Up super early to shovel out her car to get to school to unearth her van to get all of our cherubs to AIHS safely. Katherine, you are an amazing human and we are so grateful for you!

Thank you!!

Some AIHS students go to Amesbury High School to take classes there at the end of the day.

We caught our Nakai Whitlow during his "Foods Class."

He likes the class because he "gets to meet new kids." Currently they are studying foods from other countries and cultures which he thinks is interesting...today they made Chicken Alfredo...Next they will be studying grains. He will continue until the end of this quarter
