

FEBRUARY STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

BLOG BY: EMBER DUTCHER

For the month of February, the focus was Integrity—doing the right thing even when no one is watching. Integrity means being honest, trustworthy, and consistent in your values. It shows up in the classroom through hard work and responsibility, and in everyday interactions through kindness, respect, and fairness. Students who live out this value help create a culture of trust and excellence in our school.

We are proud to recognize the following students for exemplifying integrity throughout the month of February:

Yashly Ceja – 7th

Addison Wilson – 8th

Osmar Ceja – Freshman

Kelty Carey – Sophomore

Carmen Spencer – Junior

Emmalyn Northway – Senior

These students have shown strong character through their actions and have set a great example for their peers. Their commitment to doing the right thing, even when it isn't easy, truly reflects the spirit of integrity.

Congratulations to all of our February Students of the Month!

As we move into March, our focus will shift to the core value of Discipline. Teachers and staff will be looking for students who demonstrate self-control, stay focused on their goals, and show the consistency needed to succeed both inside and outside the classroom.
