FROM THE EDITOR

Our cover artist, Adela Dong, used wire, hot glue, and pastel to create this three-dimensional response to a Painting & Drawing assignment exploring alternative approaches to drawing. We love her creative response to the assignment.

Kelli's class has been off campus, capturing beautiful photographs. Our featured AP student, Mischa Lokhandwala, is sharing his contribution to the Phillips Mill Student Art Show — a thoughtfully crafted, beautifully illustrated, handmade book.

Finally, take a look at the charcoal hand studies created throughout the winter. We're so happy with the creativity in these pieces. They are on "exhibit" facing out of the artroom under the awning, so come see our outward-facing show!

Talk to us about our art electives for the Spring Trimester!
