

Mapping their Future:

A ROADMAP TO COLLEGE & CAREER PLANNING

Thursday, March 19, 2026

📍 State Rd Campus - Collab

🕒 5:30pm-6:30pm

Join us for an engaging session designed to equip parents/guardians with the knowledge and tools to foster confidence and independence as students prepare for life after high school.

This session will offer insights into college counseling, preparing for the application process, and empowering students to make informed decisions about their futures. From choosing the right path to setting realistic goals, you'll gain tools and strategies to help your child succeed.

SPECIAL GUEST

Hallie Ciarlone, M.Ed., NCC

Director of College Counseling,
Delaware Valley Friends School

Hallie joined the DVFriends community in 2011 after creating the college counseling department at a small independent day school in Baltimore. She earned her NCC distinction and M.Ed. in School Counseling from Loyola University Maryland, where she published several studies on adolescent self-efficacy. Hallie holds a B.A. in sociology and public policy from Franklin & Marshall College.

She consults with schools around the country to create programs guiding students and parents through the college admissions and transition process. She is currently co-chair of the Disability & Neurodiversity Special Interest Group for NACAC. Hallie also serves as Vice President of the Avon Grove Education Foundation. She's a proud parent of an AGCS graduate and two current AGSD students.
