Congratulations to the Steel City Winterguard on achieving their goal of breaking 60 points at their final competition of the season! The team finished strong with a 2nd place performance in the Scholastic Novice Class at the Edwardsville MCCA competition.

We could not be more proud of the dedication, hard work, and growth these students have shown throughout the season—especially after adding an additional competition to extend their season. We're excited to see the continued progress and success of this talented group in the fall season next year!

A special congratulations to our three seniors: Elizabeth, Elle, and Kyi. Thank you for the passion, commitment, and energy you brought to the program. While we're sad to see you take your final curtsy, we're incredibly proud and can't wait to see all the amazing things you accomplish in the future.
