

Grade 5: Web Literacy/Online Communication

ESTABLISHED GOALS:
Competencies: - Students will demonstrate the ability to access digital tools by using hardware and navigating software. - Students will demonstrate the ability to create documents in order to effectively communicate ideas. - Students will demonstrate the ability to use the internet to safely and effectively navigate, learn, communicate, and collaborate. Content Standards: - ISTE.1.CI. Demonstrate creative thinking, construct knowledge, and develop innovative products and processes using technology. - ISTE.2.CC. Use digital media and environments to communicate and work collaboratively, including at a distance, to support individual learning and contribute to the learning of others. - ISTE.3.RIF. Apply digital tools to gather, evaluate, and use information. - ISTE.4.CT. Use critical thinking skills to plan and conduct research, manage projects, solve problems, and make informed decisions using appropriate digital tools and resources. - ISTE.5.DC. Understand human, cultural, and societal issues related to technology and practice legal and ethical behavior. - ISTE.6.TOC. Demonstrate a sound understanding of technology concepts, systems, and operations.	Transfer
	Students will be able to independently use their learning to conduct themselves appropriately in a digital world.
	Meaning
	ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS Students will understand that... - in order to safely navigate the internet, they must avoid unsuitable content, exit inappropriate sites, and communicate issues with responsible caretakers. - open communication with responsible adults, and reporting illegal activities and communications is essential for safe internet use. - cyberbullying is unacceptable and should be reported to a responsible adult. - netiquette is an expectation for productive forum participation. - communication and participation in shared spaces is expected to be respectful and productive. - developing communal empathy for cyber bully victims is essential to ending and repairing the effects of harmful conduct.	ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS - What does cyber bullying look like? - How do you know if you're in a safe place?
	Acquisition
	Students will know... - the harmful effects that cyberbullying can cause. - that, if they see something online that is inappropriate or makes them feel worried or uncomfortable, they should turn off the monitor and notify a parent or teacher immediately. - the importance of open communication with responsible adults. - that no one can tell them to keep secrets from their parents, and if they do tell them to keep secrets from their parents, to tell their parents immediately.	Students will be skilled at... - avoiding harmful online content, participation, and activities. - knowing when it is important to communicate with their parent or teacher.. - reviewing content before sending messages to make sure it is something their parents and teachers would approve of. - keeping account data safe by managing their passwords. - managing personal information: identifying

	● to always report illegal activities and communications on the Internet to a parent or teacher. ● that when technology makes it possible for people to communicate without seeing the other person's face or hearing a voice, it is hard to know how that person is feeling. ● that when someone uses technology to write and they only use uppercase letters, the other person thinks they are shouting at them. ● that they should always think about how someone will feel before they say or write something ● that when they are mad, they should stop and wait until they are not mad before they write something. ● that if someone writes them a message that is meant to make them feel bad, they should show it to a teacher or parent, and not reply. ● that anything sent using technology could be made visible to everyone in the world, and could even be used to hurt them at any time now or in the future. ● that a cyber-bully is someone that repeatedly uses technology to hurt another person, individually or as part of a group. ● that empathy is important for living and working with others. ● why it is important to act when they know someone else is being cyberbullied. ● that there are consequences of cyberbullying at the varying levels - at the school district, state, federal, and civil levels. ● that using an alias or avatar does not absolve the user of responsibility for online activities. vocabulary: cyberbully, empathy, internet, forum, blog, netiquette, social network, navigate, flagging, flaming , podcast	cyber bullying ● identifying harmful activities. ● recognizing venues for collaboration and communication. ● recognizing the legality of online activities. ● avoiding, blocking and handling instances of cyberbullying ● flagging inappropriate content to make sure the site provider knows what the poster is doing. ● creating and managing strong passwords with letters and numbers. ● keeping their online content (page, personal information, blog) private, only sharing with parents and teachers. ● avoiding imposters and trolls in forums. ● supporting classmates who is being bullied ● stopping friends who engage in cyberbullying activities. , ● developing, implementing, and communicating new ideas to others. ● responding openly to new and diverse perspectives. ● identifying and asking significant questions that clarify various points of view and lead to better solutions. ● articulating thoughts and ideas in a variety of forms and contexts.
--	--	--

Content Area Literacy Standards	21st Century Skills
● NOT APPLICABLE	● make judgments and decisions ● communicate clearly ● collaborate with others ● access and evaluate information

	• apply technology effectively • be flexible • interact effectively with others
--	--

Evaluative Criteria	Assessment Evidence
	PERFORMANCE TASK(S):
	OTHER EVIDENCE:

Summary of Key Learning Events and Instruction
Science Integration	College, Career, and Civic Life Integration	Technology Integration
District Materials	Distance Learning/Field Trips	Technology Resources