Callan Danehower

SWIM INSTRUCTOR

Callan Danehower brings six years of lifeguarding experience and a strong passion for teaching young swimmers. He has worked with children ages 2-12, helping them develop essential water safety skills while building confidence and comfort in the water. Callan believes that learning to swim should be both safe and enjoyable, and he strives to create a positive, encouraging environment where every child can progress at their own pace.

With a focus on proper technique, safety awareness, and individualized instruction, Callan helps swimmers strengthen their skills while fostering a lifelong respect for the water. His patient and supportive approach allows children of all ability levels, from beginners to more experienced swimmers, to feel successful, confident, and excited about their time in the pool.
