PARISH

Lenten Journey by Dr. Kathleen DeJardin, Director of Music

We continue our journey to Holy Week and Easter. This Sunday is “Laetare” or “Rejoice” Sunday. We are at the midpoint of this Lenten Season and can look at our personal Lenten practices and perhaps begin again anew—there are still two weeks before Holy Week. We keep our Elect, Kennedy and Jeremy, in our prayers as they spiritually experience the Three Scrutiny Rites to purify their minds and hearts and to fortify them against temptations, so that they may cling more closely to Christ and their desire to love God. In prayerful support of our Elect we, as well, can consider our love for Christ and our Gospel mission living.

We also begin looking ahead to Palm Sunday and Holy Week. Holy Week is the most sacred time of the Church year. It begins on Palm Sunday, when we recall Jesus’ triumphant entry into Jerusalem, and it leads us through His Passion, Death, and Resurrection. Each day draws us deeper into the mystery of God’s love.

The heart of Holy Week is the Triduum—three powerful days that begin on Holy Thursday with the Mass of the Lord’s Supper, continue with the solemn remembrance of Christ’s Passion on Good Friday, and culminate in the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night, when we celebrate the Resurrection. These liturgies are rich with meaning, beauty, and tradition. We invite you to join us as we walk with Jesus through His suffering and into the joy of new life.

Easter Sunday is the glorious celebration of Christ’s Resurrection—the victory of life over death, hope over despair. It is the pinnacle of our faith and the reason for our joy. We encourage you to come and celebrate this great feast with your parish family, as we proclaim together: Christ is risen, alleluia!

DONATE A PASCHAL CANDLE

If you would like to donate a Paschal Candle to the parish, please contact Maria Romero at welcome@olgcv.org. The cost is approximately $600. You can dedicate the Paschal Candle in thanksgiving or memory of a loved one.

CUARTO DOMINGO DE LA CUARESMA (MARZO 15 DE 2026)

Hoy Jesús nos recuerda que El es la luz del mundo; fuente de toda bondad, justicia, y verdad. Todos hemos sido exhortados a vivir en Su Luz. San Francisco de Sales nos comenta lo siguiente:

La mente humana encuentra total satisfacción en el descubrimiento, en poder conocer la verdad de las cosas. Entre más grande sea una verdad, más grande será el deleite. Aún así, nuestra condición humana nos hace diestros en la búsqueda de honores, riquezas y poder. Diariamente la experiencia nos enseña que todos estos amores inútiles nos vuelven propensos a apartarnos de la verdad, en lugar de considerar la verdad del amor de Dios. El amor de Dios nos hace pensar sobre la verdad de un Paraíso colmado de felicidad eterna.

El amor sagrado refresca y fortalece nuestros corazones, cuando aceptamos con fe la verdad que encierran las enseñanzas de Jesús. Cuando la bondad de Dios nos da la luz para poder percatarnos de nuestra ceguera, esto es señal de que ha habido una conversión interna. Es entonces que nos reconocemos como hijos de la Luz. Cuando quitamos todos los obstáculos que nos impiden amar a Dios, adquirimos la capacidad para amarnos los unos a los otros, tal y como EL desea que nos amemos. Cuando descubrimos una imperfección humana, ya hemos hecho la mitad del trabajo necesario para corregirla; porque habremos recibido el entendimiento que nos permitirá liberarnos de nuestra ceguera. Sin embargo, es importante que tengamos paciencia al afrontar nuestras faltas. Debemos aprender a reconocerlas con calma y sin alboroto. Nada es más favorable para el crecimiento de ese tipo de “maleza”, que nuestra ansiedad por deshacernos de ella. Caminen siempre por la senda de la santidad, y verán como esas imperfecciones se irán debilitando.

Nuestro Salvador nos tuvo en sus

manos, y se encargó de guiar nuestra vida aún cuando no quisimos entregarnos a EL de lleno. En este momento, en que lo único que deseamos es cumplir fervorosamente con la voluntad de Dios, ¿no creen que EL desea proteger a esos pequeños corderos que se han apartado del dulce Pastor? Concentrémonos fielmente en nutrir, con reverencia y confianza, el don de la conversión que Dios nos ha otorgado. Hagamos de la gracia de Dios algo efectivo en nuestras vidas, perseverando en nuestras sagradas resoluciones, y en nuestros buenos deseos. Será entonces que podremos vivir en la Luz de Cristo, y generar verdad, justicia, y bondad.

Last week, our entire school community shared in a powerful moment of faith. With Jesus leading the way, we processed together in quiet prayer to begin our time of Eucharistic Adoration. Walking side-by-side, our students and faculty followed the Blessed Sacrament, centering our hearts on His presence among us. It was a beautiful reminder that no matter where our journey leads, we are never walking alone.

FAITH FORMATION – www.olgcva.org/faith-formation

ADULT CATECHISTS' OPPORTUNITY -Share the Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith by serving as a Catechist for adults preparing to join the Church. Through the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) program at OLG, you will deepen your own faith while guiding others. You do not need to be an expert in Catholic teachings; as the saying goes, "God calls the willing, not just the qualified." The OCIA program includes several adults divided into two groups. Catechists are assigned to each group and teach a different topic each week, allowing you to select subjects you are comfortable with. We provide guidance, materials, and a list of weekly faith formation topics to support you. OCIA classes are held on Sundays from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM at St. Joseph's Center. We encourage you to prayerfully consider this opportunity to strengthen our Catholic community. Attend a few OCIA Sunday classes to learn more about the program. For questions or additional information, please contact Joe Flaherty, Director of Faith Formation, at jflaherty@olgcva.org or (703) 896-7409.
