

VPA Art Teacher

Notre Dame High School, Belmont (NDB) seeks a motivated, enthusiastic, and resourceful Art Teacher for the 2026-2027 academic year. The Art Teacher will share the responsibility for the academic development of students and will guide them in social, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities.

This position* can be part-time or full-time based on applicant's experience and expertise in one or more of the following areas: teaching digital art, drawing, ceramics, graphic design, painting, photography, sculpture, textiles, and/or video production (digital). Additional courses might include AP Art Studio, AP Art History, and Yearbook. The Art Teacher will report to the Dean of Academics.

*We encourage applicants who want to teach specific courses based on their expertise and experience.

Description

The Art Teacher is responsible for the development and implementation of well-defined and rigorous 2-D and 3-D art courses, in collaboration with the Dean of Academics. The department is committed to emphasizing students' personal growth and expression while supporting their development of technique and mastery. The Art Teacher is also responsible for the care of the art studio and for maintaining appropriate equipment and supplies needed for the intended curriculum. A yearly competitive all-school art show caps the year's work and is administered collaboratively by all art teachers. There is an expectation that all art teachers display current student work in the Visual and Performing Arts gallery and at other sites around the campus throughout the school year.
