

Activities

Scouts BSA offers activities as far as the eye can see. If you want to do it, you can do it. A few examples of all the fun you could have with Scouts BSA are:

- Hiking
- Climbing
- White Water rafting
- Kayaking
- Swimming
- Shooting Sports
- First Aid
- Pioneering
- Orienteering

And much more.

Every merit badge you complete, every challenge you overcome, you gain intelligence, physical strength, mental competence, and you have fun while doing so!

Summer Camp

Scout camp is a magical place where you advance, rank up, and have a blast. Troop 180 attends a different summer camp each summer, which is a great and convenient place to expand your knowledge. The activities you will experience

- Camping in a canvas tent outside with a tent buddy
- Creating a campfire every night and not-to-forget everlasting memories
- Earning merit badges that will assist you in your Scouting career
- Having the time of your life with your favorite scouting troop, Troop 180

Leadership

Leadership is a key role in Scouts BSA. Troop 180 is almost completely youth led. The Senior Patrol Leader and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, both are positions that a scout can have, preside over the meetings. Scouts BSA helps prepare Scouts for the challenges they will surely encounter in real life.

Advancement

There are seven ranks in Scouts BSA These are:

- Scout
- Tenderfoot
- Second Class
- First Class
- Star, Life
- Eagle

You can complete requirements for any merit badge at any time, but you must rank up in sequence.
