

Professional Opportunity: Substitute Teacher
All Saints' Episcopal Day School
Phoenix, Arizona

All Saints' Episcopal Day School in Central Phoenix is looking for qualified substitute teachers for pre-k through eighth grade for the remainder of the 2025-26 school year, and for the 2026-27 school year. The ideal candidate must share a love for children and the learning process and take initiative while being flexible.

Assignments are available in grades pre-k-eight. They can include self-contained classroom placements as well as enrichment classes such as music, faith studies, art, foreign languages, and physical education. In addition, the substitute may be assigned to recess and other duties. Substitute teachers may be called with several days' notice of planned teacher absence, the evening prior to or the morning of a teacher's unexpected absence.

Substitute teachers will receive lesson plans to guide their work in the classroom, and they will be supported by other members of the grade-level or department team. An ability to effectively teach and manage a group of fifteen (15+) children independently is necessary.

Position Requirements

Candidates should have:

- Bachelor's degree
- Previous experience working with children in a classroom setting

Salary

The Substitute Teacher daily rate is $150.

Application Process and Materials

Qualified applicants should submit the following materials to employment@allsaints.org:

- Current resume
- Fingerprint clearance card
- College degree certificate
- Typical weekday availability
- Personal email
- Phone number
