Bill Blagg's Family Magic Brings Interactive Fun for All Ages to the Ashwaubenon Performing Arts Center

Incredible family fun offered at the ASHPAC on Saturday, March 21 for matinee event

ASHWAUBENON, Wis. – Families looking for an afternoon of laughter, amazement, and unforgettable live entertainment won't want to miss Bill Blagg's Family Magic when it comes to the Ashwaubenon Performing Arts Center on Saturday, March 21st at 2pm.

National touring magician and illusionist Bill Blagg has spent more than two decades captivating audiences with his unique blend of comedy, storytelling, and jaw-dropping magic. Raised in Kenosha, WI, Blagg discovered his passion for magic at a young age after receiving three treasured books from his great-grandfather - the famous Harlan Tarbell Course in Magic. Those books sparked a lifelong journey that would eventually take Blagg to stages across the country.

Blagg's latest production, Family Magic, is designed to entertain audiences of all ages. The high-energy show combines incredible visual magic, comedy, and plenty of audience participation - often bringing volunteers on stage and involving the entire crowd in the experience.

At the heart of the performance is Blagg's natural ability to connect with audiences through storytelling. During the show, he shares the story of the books that inspired his career and the great-grandfather who first introduced him to magic, creating a performance that is not only entertaining but also uplifting and inspiring.

Filled with amazing magic, comedy, and interactive moments, Bill Blagg's Family Magic offers affordable, unforgettable fun the whole family can enjoy together.
