

SIEMBRA LEADERSHIP
HIGH SCHOOL

Evening Project-based Learning (PBL)

The evening project-based learning (PBL) program option is primarily designed for older students, individuals returning to education, or those seeking to recover academic credits. This program is particularly suitable for students who have daytime employment, other commitments during the day, or who find that they learn most effectively or are available during evening hours.

