

SIEMBRA LEADERSHIP
HIGH SCHOOL

In-person Project-based Learning (PBL)

In-person project-based learning serves as the primary, full-time program for the majority of students. Through this model, students participate in a comprehensive day of projects and capstone experiences, earning multiple half credits according to their grade level and individual needs. In certain circumstances, a modified version of the program may be provided on a case-by-case basis to accommodate students with extenuating situations.

