✓ Intro to College Athletics

- Various College Athletic Associations

- NCAA, NAIA, NJCAA, etc.
- Sample sports – Baseball, Softball, Volleyball, Hockey, Basketball, Cross Country, Football, Cheerleading, Gymnastics, Soccer, Track, Wrestling, Golf, Swimming & Diving
- Some have athletic scholarships, others do not
- Some have strict recruitment rules, others do not

- Requirements to play in college

- Some organizations have eligibility requirements to play
- Most have requirements to remain eligible in college
- 4 years of eligibility – if do not compete at all may remain on “red-shirt” list so year does not count against them
- Increased years of eligibility are possible when transferring from community college

✓ Understanding the NCAA

- What is the NCAA?

- Guide for the College-Bound Student Athlete
- National Collegiate Athletic Association, est. in 1906
- Governing body for more than 1,000 colleges, universities, conferences, and organizations
- Division I (355 schools), II (293), & III (425)

- Rules on Recruitment

- NCAA sport-specific Recruiting Calendars
  - Different rules for different years in high school and periods (e.g., contact, evaluation, quiet, dead)
- Eligibility requirements for DI & DII only
- Annual contracts (multi-year scholarships poss. in D1)
- Once you sign, the recruitment process ends

✓ NCAA Eligibility Requirements

- Student-athletes must meet the following criteria:
  - 1) Successfully complete all core courses (16 total for DI & DII)
    - 10 core courses (including 7 in English, math or natural/physical science) prior to your 7th semester (first 8 semesters only)
    - Will accept the highest core courses if take over 16
  - 2) Have a min. 2.3 core course gpa (2.2 gpa-DII, Aug. 2023)
    - ACT/SAT no longer required as of 2023 but may be for college admissions or scholarships
  - 3) Successfully graduate from high school and provide proof
- Maintain academic eligibility during college
- $110 fee to register for academic and amateurism account or $75 amateurism only

✓ NCAA Eligibility Requirements: Defining Core Courses

- “Any course at your high school, reviewed/approved by NCAA for meeting their academic standards”
  - Some LP classes are NOT accepted (ie, Bus Tech Writ/Math Foundations)
  - More gpa points for weighted, honors, & AP classes
- Typical subjects include:
  - English, Math, Natural/Physical Science, Social Science and World Language
- Note: 1 full-year LP course = 1 NCAA credit (not 2)
- Different Core Course GPA requirements for Different Division levels (DI & DII)
- Core Courses at LP High School (Student Handbook)

✓ NCAA Eligibility Requirements

- There are 3 possible academic outcomes:
  - 1) Early academic qualifier = See upcoming slide
  - 2) Full qualifier = competition, athletics aid, and practice first year
  - 3) Academic redshirt / Partial qualifier = athletics aid first year and practice in first regular academic term, but no competition
  - 4) Non-qualifier = no athletics aid, practice or competition first year

** Note – Please see NCAA Guide Handbook

What Can You Do Now?

BE PROACTIVE

- Email college coaches and explain why you are interested in playing for their teams. Make the email personal, informative and concise. Attach a highlight tape or skills/sport resume if you have one.
- Attend college camps. Target a few schools where you would like to compete.
- Attend showcases. Many college coaches attend these to look at multiple students during 1 event.
- Set up a meeting with your high school coach. Ask coach to write a letter of recommendation to a short-list of preferred colleges. Include game schedules.
- Complete on-line questionnaires that many colleges post on their athletic websites.

What Can You Do Now?

BE ACTIVE

- Play year-round. Play at indoor facilities that offer “high-level” instruction. Join a travel or club team during the off season.
- Play another sport. Many coaches are looking for well-rounded athletes.

BE REALISTIC

- Research current athletes at the schools you are interested in. Compare your stats to their stats. Be realistic about your options.

BE PERSISTENT

- Keep sending emails with updates about you and/or your team’s accomplishments.
- Let colleges know if you will be attending a college open house or campus visit.
