Questions from Boykin and Davis

Could you please elaborate on the presentation aspect of the RFP?
Could you confirm whether the Board is expecting a formal presentation (such as a PowerPoint), and if so, what topics should be covered? Alternatively, are they looking for a more informal discussion, and if so, what subject areas should we be prepared to address? A short presentation concerning the services that firms offer and their legal experience.

Finally, should we anticipate a combination of a brief presentation followed by a Q&A session? Firms will have up to 15 minutes to present followed by questions if any, from board members.
