

Charitable Bequests Through a Will or Revocable Trust

Charitable bequests are the most common form of planned gift in America — and the cornerstone of the Mountain Legacy Society.

What is a Bequest?

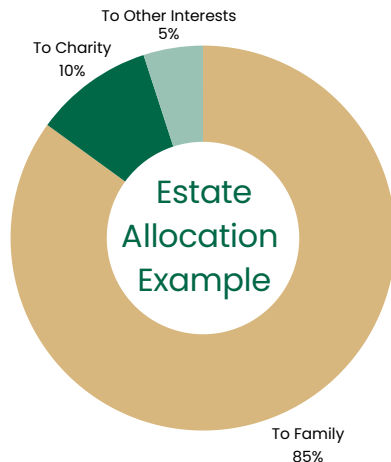

A gift written into a will or revocable living trust.

TYPES

- Specific dollar amount
- Percentage of estate
- Residual gift
- Contingent gift

WHY DONORS CHOOSE BEQUESTS

- Specific dollar amount
- Percentage of estate
- Residual gift
- Contingent gift

A modest percentage can create transformational impact.

SAMPLE LANGUAGE

"I give, devise, and bequeath to Rabun Gap-Nacoochee School of Rabun Gap, GA (#58-0593430) the sum of $_____ (or ____%) to be used for its general charitable purposes"

MOUNTAIN LEGACY PERSPECTIVE

Many of Rabun Gap's most significant endowments began as bequests from loyal annual donors.

ESTATE & PLANNED GIVING

Your legacy can shape the future.

Join the Mountain Legacy Society

A planned gift is one of the most meaningful ways to ensure Rabun Gap's mission endures for generations.

If you have included the School in your estate plans — or would like to explore how to do so — we invite you to connect with our Advancement Office for a confidential conversation.

Through thoughtful planning, Mountain Legacy Society members:

- Sustain access through scholarships
- Protect historic campus assets
- Support faculty excellence
- Ensure Rabun Gap's mission for generations
