AC Flora Performing Arts Team

Kevin Reagan is in his first year as the theatre teacher at AC Flora High School, where he teaches Theatre I–IV and IB Theatre HL/SL. Prior to joining Flora, he spent 17 years as a theatre teacher, producer, director, and theatre owner in Maryland. He holds a B.A. in Theatre from Washington College and an M.Ed. in Educational Leadership and Administration from Salisbury University. Over the course of his career, Mr. Reagan has directed several dozen large-scale productions and developed and lead a summer theatre program serving students from grades K through 12.

Kevin E. Sweatt is the Director of Bands at AC Flora High School in Columbia, SC. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Instrumental Music Education from Charleston Southern University, where he performed in numerous ensembles and served as Head Drum Major of the CSU Marching Bucs for two years. Mr. Sweatt is an active trombonist with the Palmetto Concert Band and has performed with the Charleston Wind Symphony and Aiken Concert Band. He has served as a guest conductor and clinician throughout South Carolina and was named Schofield Middle School First Year Teacher of the Year in 2016–2017, as well as a top three Teacher of the Year finalist from 2018–2021. Mr. Sweatt has studied conducting with Dr. Marshall Forrester and Dr. Nicholas Holland and bass trombone with Dr. Justin Clarkson. He serves as a cooperating teacher with the University of South Carolina and is an active member of the International Trombone Association (ITA), National Association for Music Education (NAfME), South Carolina Music Education Association (SCMEA), and the South Carolina Band Directors Association (SCBDA), where he also serves as the Columbia Solo & Ensemble Festival Site Coordinator.

Chelse Lawson holds undergraduate degrees in Theatre with emphasis in Stage Management from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (2012), and K-12 Choral Music Education from the University of South Carolina (2017), and recently completed her master's degree in Educational Literacy from Clemson University in December 2025. Chelse is an active member of the National Association of Music Educators and the American Choral Director's Association, and performs locally and internationally through Limited Time Only, under the direction of Dr. Alicia Walker, and with Sandlapper Singers, under the direction of Dr. Augusto Gil. Chelse taught middle school choir at St. Andrews Middle School in Columbia, SC for five years before moving to her current position of Director of Choirs at AC Flora High School in

Columbia, SC. At AC Flora, Chelse teaches Choir 1-4H, Musical Theatre, Piano 1-4, and has spent two years serving on the AC Flora Band Staff. She is a passionate musician and artist, and she cannot wait to start this production! In the words of Anna, "'Cause for the First time in Forever, there'll be music, there'll be light!"

Molly Allen is a senior Dance Education major from Jacksonville, Florida, whose training grew out of her years in performing arts schools and competing in dance competitions across the East Coast. During her time at USC, she has been part of numerous dance productions and has enjoyed exploring a variety of styles and collaborative processes. This semester, Molly will begin student teaching at Meadow Glen Middle School, as part of her degree and is excited to share her passion for movement with young dancers. She hopes to inspire creativity, confidence, and joy in every classroom she enters.

Alexandra Popovitch also known as "Poppy" is a senior Dance Education major at the University of South Carolina. Originally from the Jersey Shore Alexandra has been in dance since she was a toddler training at Dance For Joy in Brielle, NJ. However, she began a more in-depth study in ballet, modern, jazz, and musical theater at Grunin Performing Arts Academy in Toms River, NJ where she performed as Kylar in Bring It On (2022) and Val Clarke in A Chorus Line (2021). During her time at South Carolina, she performed in the Betsy Blackman Dance Company's Concerts including pieces such as Janis Brenner's Lost, Found, Lost (2023) and Olivia Waldrop's Luna (2024). She also choreographed two high energy jazz pieces for the Student Choreography Showcase entitled Sexy Ridiculous and Mic Drop. Post under-graduate Alexandra plans to pursue her passion of dance education and teach dance in South Carolina public schools.

Jarvernique Tinsley is the orchestra teacher at AC Flora High School, performing in his first musical ensemble since Dreher's 2016 production of Cinderella. Jarvernique enjoys acquiring "useless knowledge" and he is even a solid semi-consistent bowler. Special thanks to his wife, Nucreatia, friends, and family!

AUTOGRAPHS

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHIES

KRISTEN ANDERSON-LOPEZ is part of the Oscar, Grammy, and Emmy winning songwriting team behind the Disney animated films, Frozen and Frozen 2, with her husband ROBERT LOPEZ. Together they also wrote the Oscar winning song "Remember Me" from Pixar's Coco, as well as songs for Marvel's WandaVision (Emmy Award win for "Agatha All Along") and its spin-off series Agatha All Along. They adapted Frozen for the Broadway stage and are co-creators of the Hulu original series Up Here.Robert co-conceived and co-wrote the hit musicals Avenue Q and The Book of Mormon, both earning him Tony Awards. Kristen's show In Transit made history as the first all a cappella musical to run on Broadway after an award-winning Off-Broadway run. Lopez and Anderson-Lopez have written for television, film and stage, including Finding Nemo: The Musical; songs for "The Wonder Pets" (two Emmy Award wins) and the Winnie the Pooh animated film. Lopez and Anderson-Lopez both serve on the Dramatists Guild Council. Graduates of Yale University and Williams College, respectively, they now reside in Brooklyn with their family.

JENNIFER LEE is the Academy Award®-winning writer and director of Walt Disney Animation Studio's Frozen. For her work on Frozen, Lee received numerous awards including a Golden Globe, a Critics' Choice Award, a BAFTA Award, and an Academy Award®. She wrote the book for the Broadway stage adaptation of Frozen, receiving a Tony Award® nomination for Best Book of a Musical, and wrote and directed the animated feature Frozen 2. Her Disney Animation career began as co-writer of the Oscar®-nominated Wreck-It Ralph. She went on to co-write the story for the Academy Award®-winning Zootopia, and served as Chief Creative Officer of Walt Disney Animation Studios from 2018 to 2024, when she began working on Frozen 3 and Frozen 4. She has executive produced numerous award-winning animated films including Moana 2, Raya and the Last Dragon and the Academy® Award-winning Encanto. Her graphic novel As I Dream of You will be published in 2026.
