

BEDE'S PREP SCHOOL: POWERING THE LOCAL AND NATIONAL ECONOMY

A significant financial and social contributor to Eastbourne and the UK, generating value through operations, employment, and supply chain.

ECONOMIC VALUE (GDP)

£8,535,569

TOTAL UK GDP CONTRIBUTION

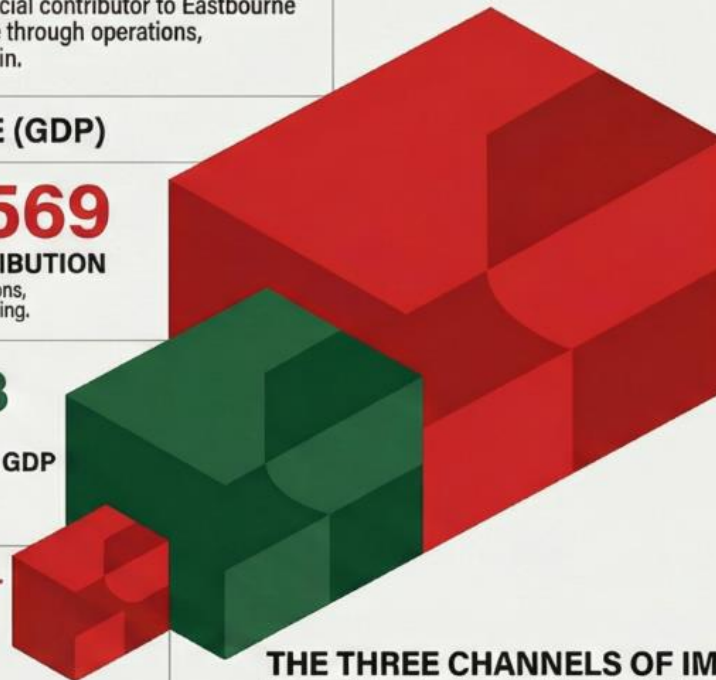

Total national impact from operations, supply chain, and employee spending.

£3,626,823

CONTRIBUTED TO EASTBOURNE'S LOCAL GDP

42% of total impact, supporting 0.18% of local GDP.

THE TRIPLE-CHANNEL RIPPLE EFFECT

THE THREE CHANNELS OF IMPACT

Purpose: To show how the school's impact extends beyond its own gates into the supply chain and wider economy.

IMPACT CHANNEL	GDP CONTRIBUTION	JOBS SUPPORTED	TAX SUPPORTED
Direct (School)	£2,902,000	107	£1,431,840
Indirect (Supply Chain)	£1,401,280	28	£313,006
Induced (Spending)	£4,232,289	79	£1,503,196

EMPLOYMENT AND JOB CREATION

214

TOTAL UK JOBS SUPPORTED

107 direct staff and an additional 107 jobs supported across the UK.

125

JOBS SUPPORTED LOCALLY IN EASTBOURNE

59% of total jobs, supporting 0.28% of local employment.

Core teaching and non-teaching headcount employed directly.

FISCAL IMPACT & PUBLIC SAVINGS

£3,248,042

TOTAL UK TAX SUPPORTED

Includes VAT, employer NICs, business rates, and income tax.

£1,394,715

SAVED BY THE UK TAXPAYER

Annual government saving for 182 pupils requiring state places.

IN DIRECT TAX CONTRIBUTIONS

Immediate taxes paid by the school and staff.