TRAINING, RESOURCES & TOOLS FOR SUCCESS

If Your Family Lives In Any Of The Following Situations:

In a shelter

In a car, park, abandoned building, or bus or train station

In a motel or campground due to the lack of an alternative adequate accommodation

Living with family or friends due to loss of housing or economic hardship

Your school-age children may qualify for certain rights and protections under the federal McKinney-Vento Act.

YOUR ELIGIBLE CHILDREN HAVE THE RIGHT TO

Receive a free, appropriate public education.

Enroll in the local school; or continue attending their school of origin (the school they attended when permanently housed or the school in which they were last enrolled), if that is your preference.

Enroll in school immediately, even if lacking documents normally required for enrollment.

Receive transportation to and from the school of origin, if you request this.

Receive educational services comparable to those provided to other students, according to your children's needs.

* If the school district believes that the school you select is not in the best interest of your children, then the district must provide you with a written explanation of its position and inform you of your right to appeal its decision.

If you believe your children may be eligible, contact the local liaison to find out what services and supports may be available. There also may be supports available for your preschool-age children.
