To stand in the light is to be Christ-like.
To do something for others
with little regard for self.
When we walk
in God's light
we continually receive light,
power
and life from Him and we can pass that light on to others.

Standing in the light is not something that everyone always sees.
It is often the actions
that most people overlook.
The light and sound guys
who regularly venture
into the frigid auditorium
to hook up microphones
and uncover the piano.

The scholastic tutor
who spends free time
helping a fellow student who "just doesn't get it."
An unexpected thank you note.
A friend frantically decorating a locker
before the birthday girl shows up.

It's not just the big things that people see that are important
but the little things as well.
If we stand in the light
we will shine,
not with a worldly light
but with a heavenly light that will radiate through us.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

FRESHMEN INITIATION

Once again Freshmen Initiation threw seniors into fits of revenge and freshmen into a mass state of fear. The senior hall of Timothy was filled with odd clothes, white toilet bowl headgear, and beautiful formal wear. This year the Student Council opted for no Kangaroo Court, much to the relief of the Freshmen, who were quite tired after their early morning breakfasts at Dennys.

1. People who didn't make Star Search. 2. Jamie Nelson shows some school spirit. 3. Don't hate me, because I'm beautiful. 4. 2000 flushes. 5. Dial 976-Babe. 6. 3 Men having an identity crisis.

4

This year the Timothy Drama department tried something new. Since the musical was finished in March, there was enough time to put on three, student directed, one act plays. The plays and their directors were: "Where Have all the Lightning Bugs Gone" directed by Linnea Zeiner, "This is a Test" directed by Chris Ornee, and "Subzero" directed by Andy Polheber. All the actors and the directors had fun putting these together.

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

Being on Children's Theatre this year meant:

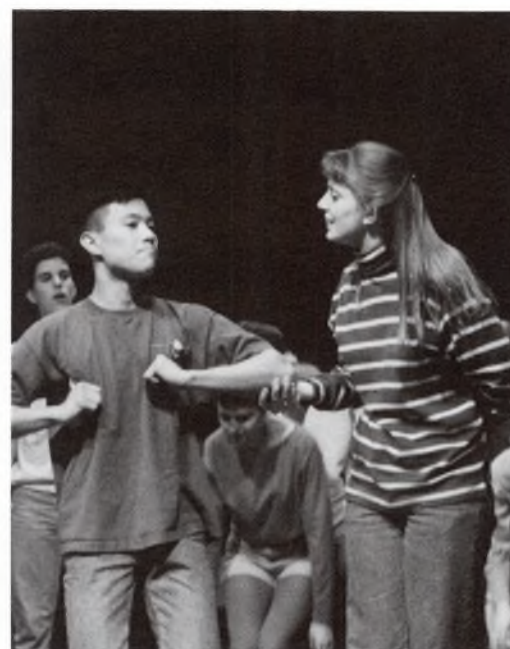

- Tricia Tusa
- "Just Be Patient . . . we'll have that thorn out in no time."
- fortunately . . .
- circle sit
- mini-bus runs out of gas
- Warren Dune sliding
- handshake warmup
- Kevin Henkies . . . or is it Henks.
- 10 minutes of silence turns into a zoo.
- chocolate I scream cone.
- Tom, Matt, and Matt play pool instead.
- Bubba is a big rock
- Mats and trampolines in the mini gym.

MOCK TRIAL

Being on Mock Trial this year meant:

- Getting third in county competition (almost tying the state champions) but a disappointing finish at state (we were good)
- Kissing up to Jerry Kurz (is he getting balder?)
- Brian Baker's saddening disappearance (and the letter to him)
- Timothy being the only immature school at state (the gunfights and lizard)
- "You guys are better than many real lawyers I've seen . . ."
- Going against Heritage: seeing their lawyer trip and having to cross our own witness
- Staying at the Wyndham and getting charged for the pay-per-view movies

FEATURES

MEXICO TRIP

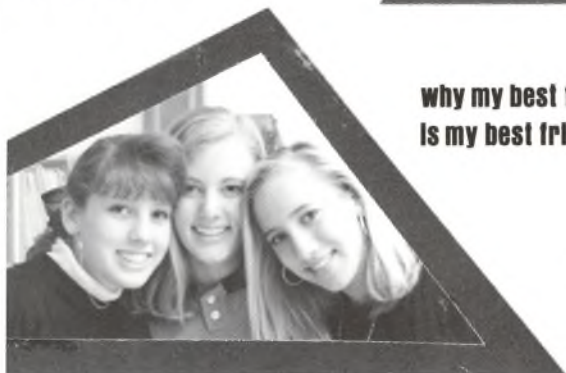

This year's trip to Mexico had a Mayan theme and they learned much about the past and present Mayan Indian Cultures. They stayed at Merida and Cancun. Mrs. VanProoyen and Mrs. Stulp were the chaperons. Twelve students spent Spring Break in a balance of learning, shopping, and parasailing.

1. The Mayan Pyramid of Chichen Itza. 2. Andrea gets a boost while inspecting the ball court at Uxmal. 3. Mrs. Stulp bravely climbs the pyramid at Chichen Itza. 4. Mrs. VanProoyen catches her breath on the way up. 5. Having a good time at the Mexican Fiesta.

LOCK-IN

For the first time in history, Timothy had a lock-in. The night was full of times of getting to know each other. There were games, such as an obstacle course, marshmallow fight, basketball and volleyball. Scott Davis spoke on harmony and truthfulness. There were some who even dared to sleep in the halls.

Congratulations, Matthew

Our hearts have been deeply touched by your sensitivity to others; your gentle,
caring spirit; your warm wit and humor;
and your fine character. God has not only richly blessed you, Matthew, but He has blessed us through you, and the sharing of these years together has been our greatest joy.

Congratulations, son. We are so proud of you. May our gracious Lord continue to bless you and keep you, always, in His care.

We all love you so much.

Ecclesiastes 12: 9-14

"But then, because the Preacher was wise, he went on teaching the people all he knew; and he collected proverbs and classified them. For the Preacher was not only a wise man, but a good teacher; he not only taught what he knew to the people, but taught them in an interesting manner. The wise man's words are like goads that spur to action. They nail down important truths. Students are wise who master what their teachers tell them.

But, my son, be warned: there is no end of opinions ready to be expressed. Studying them can go on forever, and become very exhausting!

Here is my final conclusion: fear God and obey his commandments, for this is the entire duty of man. For God will judge us for everything we do, including every hidden thing, good or bad.

Dr. and Mrs. Fiesenga

Where would you like to be in the next five years?

24% of RBC graduates are pastors, church education directors, youth ministers, and evangelists.

20% are serving overseas.

25% go on to seminary and other graduate programs.

9% serve with social agencies.

Others use RBC's degree to open doors in business and service sectors while giving leadership in the church.

RBC is now accepting applications for enrollment in September. Contact RBC's admissions office.

RBC welcomes transfer students and adults changing career directions as well as recent high school graduates. Futures begin here.

1. Photographer: 1st row: Rachel Decker. 2nd row: Dory Boswell, Randy Veldman, Sandy Klobnak, Amber Achilles. 3rd row: Sue Eversole, Steve Johnson. 2. Jim and Meghan are clueless, as usual. 3. Jen and Anna, the editors; Mr. H., the advisor. 4. Saga Staff: 1st row: Randy Veldman, Jen Yeazel, Anna Quanstrom, Michelle Genovesi, JoAnna Socha, Jennifer Berry, Jackie Blakely, Monica Murray, Prudence Kagawa. 2nd row: Rachel Decker, Debi Doig, Kristen Kiefer, Kristen Hoekstra, Jim Vellenga, Amber Achilles, Jennifer Liss, Melissa Wong, Tom Feller, Julie Terpstra, Rebecca Kasa. 3rd row: Jen Houseward, Mark DeBoer, Megan Smile, Trudy Stob, Karen VanderMuelen, Tricia VanderLeest. 5. Tricia gleefully does her layout. 6. Mike and Bjorn are introduced to a life of crime by our business advisor "Baby face" Roelofs. 7. Our typist, Kristen, takes typing the yearbook seriously. 8. Bjorn Lingren and Mike Veenstra search through mounds of clutter to find page 134.
