 The red carpet is ready to be rolled out for tomorrow night's dance. Our Spring Dance is taking place tomorrow from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. in the main quad. Thanks to our very generous PTO, the star-studded event is free but be sure to bring money for pizza and yummy treats. We will have a selfie booth, games, and an incredible DJ. There will also be prizes for the best dressed, the most creative outfit, and the best celebrity look-alike. Be sure to have your parents sign your Dance Ticket that was passed out yesterday. If you need another copy, they are available in the office. We can't wait to see you out on the dance floor!

 Today's Women's History Month quote comes from American labor leader (and California resident) Dolores Huerta, who said, "We must use our lives to make the world a better place to live, not just to acquire things. That is what we are put on the earth for."

 In yesterday's Battle of the Books action, "The Book Wormies" won the day's battle out of five knowledgeable teams. Well behaved spectators are welcome to watch!

 In Chess News: With just 3 contenders, the Chess Tournament got real yesterday. The last semi-final ended with an amazing, 10-minute timed match between Eddie Reasoner and George Shillinger. When it started, one could tell Reasoner was quickly making a move to checkmate in the corner using his queen. However, Eddie left his queen hanging and blundered the queen. George picked up the pace of his game quickly capturing a rook, a knight, and a bishop. Shillinger then focused on a checkmate instead of winning on time, and got it with a complex, multiple piece checkmate. George advances, representing the 8th graders! Against... Milan Tabrizi, representing the 6th graders! The Final Championship begins today in Room C6!! Be there!!!

 Attention Film Fans! Come to D7 at lunch to continue the showing of Arriety. We hope to see you there!

 The Songwriters Club meets today at lunch in C9, Mr. Loosley's room.
