Contest Manager

Donna Taylor

As a teacher and director from 1979-2015, Mrs. Taylor has a plethora of memories to ponder as she contemplated her future involvement into the Arts . She graduated from University of Houston in 1979 with a B.S. in Theatre and Speech. She earned M.S. in Theatre Education from Lamar University in 2004. In 2021, she went back into the classroom as a part time teacher at San Jacinto College Central and it has been a wonderful opportunity. She has been very involved in the Theatre world of TxETA, UIL, Tommy Tunes, Clinician, Contest Managing and Directing in the community and church. She is currently involved with TxETA as a member of the Leadership committee, and Secretary of the Retiree Committee. She believes in the process of UIL OAP and hopes to encourage the participants to enjoy the journey. As an adjudicator and contest manager she respects the effort, skill and love that goes into each production.

Adjudicator

Trevor Boffone

Trevor Boffone is an educator and scholar with over 17 years of teaching experience working with middle school, high school, and college students. He currently teaches at the University of Houston. His work using TikTok with his students has been featured on Good Morning America, ABC News, Inside Edition, and Access Hollywood, among numerous national and local media platforms. He is the author of "Renegades: Digital Dance Cultures from Dubsmash to TikTok," "TikTok Broadway: Musical Theatre Fandom in the Digital Age," and "Social Media in Musical Theatre." As a social media strategist and manager, he has worked with regional theatre, arts organizations, and individual artists. He is the founder of the 50 Playwrights Project and a proud member of the National Steering Committee for the Latinx Theatre Commons. Since moving to Texas from his home state of Louisiana, Trevor has become a huge supporter of the UIL OAP competition and process and looks forward to encouraging the inspirational work of young theatre practitioners in Texas as a clinician and adjudicator.

Brook Lemley

Brook Lemley retired in 2021, after 30 years of teaching Theatre in the state of Texas. During her 30-year career, Ms. Lemley's various 5A and 6A One Act Play companies were blessed to be District Champions 26 times, competed at the Bi-District, Area and Regional level multiple times, and competed at the 5A State level twice. She has an incredible passion for the UIL One Act Play contest and has always held that a student will be inspired and will flourish as an artist by participating in UIL OAP Clinics and in the contest itself, because of the incredible learning experience they provide. Ms. Lemley has served on the Texas Thespian Adult Advisory Board and was named Southeast Texas "Hearts for the Arts" Educator of the Year, as well as the Sam Houston State Theatre Educator Alumni Educator of the Year. She served on the Board of Directors for the Orange Community Players, and, worked professionally as a director for the Orange Service Leagues Follies.

Catherine Huvar

Cathy Huvar holds a Bachelor of Science in Education degree in theatre from Texas State University and a Master of Arts degree in theatre from Stephen F. Austin State University. She has been actively involved in educational theatre and the UIL OAP process for over forty years as a teacher, director, contest manager and adjudicator having judged all classifications and levels of OAP competition. Ms. Huvar was named Texas Educational Theatre Association (TETA) Community College Educator of the Year in 1994 and received the TETA Emeritus Award in 2019. She also received the Texas Community College Speech and Theatre Association's Founders Award in 2016. She has held numerous offices and committee positions in TTAO as well as in the Community College division of TETA. She is a firm believer in the value of the UIL OAP contest for all students.
