 Are you planning to participate in this year's student film festival? If so, we need an outline or proof of script by April 8th. What is proof of script you ask? It's a list of all cast and crew, equipment needed for filming, location, and a general outline of your film. This will let us know you are on track and have a plan. For more information, please attend the meeting next Tuesday, March 31st in Mr. Matheson's room and we can answer any questions you might have!

 The Chess Tournament is over! George Shillinger and Milan Tabrizi met up for the show-down of the year in the 1st Annual Freestyle Chess Tournament. Initially the game started with the normal fight for the center of the board. However, very quickly Tabrizi spearheaded the board with a beautiful V-array of pawns opening up the diagonal for his queen and light bishop. Shillinger attempted to set up a defense with a castling maneuver, but it was too late. His king was chased from one corner to the next, finally getting pinned with Tabrizi's queen supported by a knight. The game was thoroughly entertaining for the crowd of 15 students watching intently. Congrats to Milan Tabrizi! And kudos to George Shillinger who just recently learned chess and showed off his intellect to make it all the way to the final.
